A Poem From Mrs. Eby...
 —Crucifixion Then Coronation—
 Have you ever heard the tale of the Aloe plant in the sunny clime? By humble growth of a hundred years it reaches its blooming time; and then a wondrous bud at its crown breaks into a thousand flowers; this floral queen, in its blooming seen, is the pride of the tropical bowers, for the plant to the flower is sacrificed for it bloom but once, then dies.
 Have you further heard of the Aloe plant, that grows in the sunny clime; How every one of its thousand flowers as they drop in the blooming time. Is an infant plant that fastens its roots in the place where it falls on the ground as fast as they drop from the dying stem. By dying, it liveth a thousand fold in the young that springs from the death of the old.
 Have you heard the tale of the pelican, the Arave gimmel-el-

Bahr, that lives in the African solitude, where the birds that live lonely are? Have you heard how it loves its tender young, and cares and toils for their good and brings them water from mountains far and fishes the seas for their food? In famine it feeds them what love can devise! The blood of its bosom, and feeding them, dies.
 Have you heard this tale, the best of them all, the tale of the Holy and true. He dies, but His life, in untold souls lives on in the world anew. His seed prevails and is filling the earth, as the stars fill the sky above. He taught us to yield the love of life, for the sake of the love of life. "His death is our life". "His loss is our gain". The joy for the tear, the peace for the pain, "The glory of tomorrow is rooted in the drudgery of today". (Selected)
