Dorsey News

By Mrs. Harold Osborn

Hard wind, hail and rain battered this community Monday night at midnight. No heavy losses were reported but trees were mangled, twisted and uprooted. At several places window panes were broken, shingles blown loose, windmills twisted and damaged like that reported at various farms around.

Lyle Wells worked all day Tuesday helping Pat clean up the trees and remove them from off the house and wash house. John Derickson and Howard Slack also helped.

Lee Brady sr. was taken to the Lynch hospital Tuesday afternoon. He is not too well at this writing. Mrs. Brady became ill Wednesday evening and was also admitted to the hospital.

Marvin Wiley, Grand Island, came to Lynch and got his mother Friday so she could be with them until the Brady's recovered from their illness. Mrs. Wiley had been staying with the Bradys.

Mrs. Guy Hull entertained Scottville club on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Stanley and children, Des Moines, Ia., Mr. and Mrs. John Brady, Denver, Colo., Mr. and Mrs. Dean Van Every and children, Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Richter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brady, Mrs. John Bahl and children, and Mrs. Bob Sholes and girls were entertained at the Harry Johnson home Friday.

Callers at the Harold Osborn home Tuesday to see what the wind did were John Derickson, Lyle Wells, Howard Slack, Bob Sholes and children, Greg Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson.

It was reported that east of us some families received hail which damaged the crops.

Mariyn Graham spent Saturday night at the Albert Carson home visiting with June, before she returned to Hastings Sunday. Miss Graham accompanied Mrs. Albert Carson and June to Hastings Sunday.

Church services were held at the Dorsey church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Wells and children, Buss Greene and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Osborn visited at the Howard Slack home Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Hrbek called at the Osborn home Thursday on their way to O'Neill so they could let the Graham's know a huge tree had fallen into the road and on a fence.

Mrs. T. J. Wickham and Mrs. Bruce McElhaney and son drove up from Lincoln Tuesday so they could spend a few days with relatives. They arrived at the Carson sisters in the afternoon. Mrs. McElhaney was met by her folks, the Harry Johnsons. Mrs. Wickham was staying with the Carson sisters.

Edward and Jess Carson, Mrs. Wolfe and Mrs. T. J. Wickham called at the hospital to see the Bradys on Friday.

Jo Ann Alm has been attending Bible camp the past week.

held Sunday at the park in Neligh. In conjunction with this, Mr. and Mrs. James Bridgman celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. The reception was held in the building in the park, with 71 families and relatives signing the guest book. The Bridges lived in the Page area for many years before retiring to Orchard. They are the parents of five children and were fortunate to have all of them present. They are: Mrs. Viggo Clausen, Rushville, Mrs. Harlan Larson, Wolbach and son, Floyd, Don and Richard and their families all of Rushville. Guests coming from a distance included Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wright, Sioux City, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Bice, Atlantic, Ia., Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bonin, Davenport, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel, Carson, Ia., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walden, Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Bice, Girswold, Ia., Ronnie Raff, Osmond, May Ibsen and Mr. and Mrs. J. The Senior MYF met Sunday night at the Methodist church with the accompaniment of the Junior MYF which is now a united group. Bonnie Heiss had the devotion and lesson, "Do We Have Gray Flannel Minds?". The group will paint the parsonage garage as soon as weather permits.

At the annual Methodist Conference held last week in Lincoln, Merwyn French sr. was honored by being elected layman of the year. This is quite an honor as he was picked from 132,000 Methodists. Mr. French received an engraved plaque. It was announced that Rev. Robert Linder was appointed to the Page-Inman Methodist churches for another year.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Belmar were Sunday night supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Troshynski. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Asher and family and Mrs. Frieda Asher were Friday night guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Asher, Atkinson.

Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Lee Taylor, Mrs. Melvin Smith and Linda and Mrs. Hester Edmisten drove to Ralston where Mrs. Smith and Linda were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Stewart. Mrs. Edmisten visited in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jess Bolin, Lincoln and Wednesday attended the wedding of her granddaughter, Marian. The Taylors went to Omaha where Mr. Taylor underwent a medical check-up. They all returned to Page Thursday evening.

A large crowd attended the Tri F's annual picnic held at the Page park Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Asher, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Don Nissen, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sorensen and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Asher surprised Mrs. Jerry Asher on her birthday Sunday evening.

WSCS met Thursday with 16 members and one guest, Opal Voehle, were present. Mrs. Elton Braddock had the devotion and lesson, "Ecumenical Deaconess" assisted by Mmes. Edgar Stauffer, Raymond Heiss, John Steinberg and Jessie Kelly. There will be a general cleaning of the church this week. Get well cards were signed for Lloyd Fusselman, Mrs. Elsie Frerichs and Mrs. Frank Snyder. Lunch was served by Mrs. George Clancy and Mrs. Donald Snyder.

Eleven members were present when Mrs. Harry Tegeler entertained the Get-To-Gether club. The members discussed a tour of Norfolk which they plan on taking in the near future. A report was given on the theatre party. Mrs. Alma Tegeler will be the next hostess.

A miscellaneous shower was given Friday night at the Methodist church for Miss Karen Brown, fiancée of Loren Stewart, Page. Mrs. Lynn Larson entertained the group by playing a couple of accordion solos. Assisting Miss Brown with her gifts were Jan Withee, Orchard, Linda Smith, Charlene Fusselman and Marlene Frahm.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton Braddock were weekend guests of their daughter, Mrs. Robert Steverson and family, Lincoln.

Mrs. Bessie Wanser, Fremont, visited from Wednesday to Monday with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Cronk and family.
