

Boyle, Cunningham Are Married In Catholic Rite Saturday at St. Patrick's

The marriage of Miss Helen Joan Boyle and Dennis L. Cunningham took place Saturday morning at St. Patrick's Catholic church at a double ring ceremony. The Rev. Robert Duffy officiated.

Miss Boyle is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boyle. Mr. Cunningham is the son of Mrs. LeRoy Cunningham.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, appeared in a white nylon tulle and chantilly lace gown over drop skirts of net and burmull satin. A lace edged sash and neckline accented the bodice. Long fitted sleeves ended in bridal points. A deep flounce and a full length front panel of lace highlighted the floor length bouffant skirt. A jeweled cap held in place the bride's silk illusion fingertip veil.

The bride's flowers were lavender and white mums with lavender and white streamers on a white Prayer Book with a crystal rosary.

Mrs. Donald Schneider, Inman, was the maid of honor. Her dress was green taffeta with a scalloped neckline. She carried lavender mums with lavender streamers.

Best man was Dick Cunningham, Page. Ushers were Clark Gaughenbaugh and Pat Boyle. Miniature ushers were Chuck and Kenny Ramold.

Music at the wedding was furnished by Helen Gokie, organist, and Patricia McKenzie who sang "Ave Maria" and "Mother Be- loved".

Following the ceremony a brunch was given at the American Legion Hall for approximately 60 guests. Servers at the brunch were Mariam Boyle, Carol Gaughenbaugh, Mary Ellen Beha, Mary Pribil, Eileen Pribil and Veronica Pribil.

Cooks were the Mmes. Matt Beha, Leo Schneider, Dorothy Pribil, Frank Sheff, Joe Kalina and Ray Tunenier.

The cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Don Schneider and was cut and served by Miss Rita Boyle.

Mrs. Clark Gaughenbaugh served the punch. Mrs. Dick Cunningham had charge of the guest book. The Misses Charlene Fuschelman and Dorothy Belina had charge of the gifts.

A wedding dance was held Saturday evening.

Mr. Cunningham is presently employed by the Merri Dr. Pepper Co. They will be at home at 215 1/2 Fremont.

Spencer Church Scene of Row, Nelson Wedding

The altar of the Methodist church, Spencer, was decorated with lighted white candles and basket arrangements of white gladiolus and blue pom-pom on Saturday evening for the wedding of Miss Nancy Lee Row, daughter of Mrs. Harrison J. Row, Spencer, and Paul Arden Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Nelson, O'Neill.

The double ring ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. W. C. Hansen, Omaha, assisted by the Rev. V. R. Daniels, Spencer.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Ralph Dickey, chose for her wedding, a white gown of embroidered silk organza over taffeta. The bell shaped skirt, completed at the back by a bow, extended into a chapel train. Her triple-tier veil of imported illusion was accented with tiny seed pearls and caught by a crown of iridescent white blossoms. She carried a single white orchid and a cascade of lily-of-the-valley and ivy on a white Bible. The bridal Bible was a graduation gift of her grandfather, John Dickey.

Mrs. Thomas F. Hoyme, Kansas City, Mo., was matron of honor. Miss Helen Friedrich, Omaha, was bridesmaid. Both were attired in street length open blue taffeta sheath dresses with matching chiffon overskirts. They wore matching headbands and carried a circular bouquet of white daisies on blue net.

Leonard Mahlendorf, Spencer, served as bestman. Ronald Connot was groomsmen. Robert Haun and Ronald Connot were ushers. Kimberly Dill was flower girl and John Dickey, ring bearer.

Music was furnished by Mrs. P. O. Friedrich who accompanied D. W. Dickey, Ord, who sang "Because" and "Oh Perfect Love".

Following the ceremony, a reception was given by the bride's mother. Mrs. Gordon Troner, Omaha, presided at the guest book. Mrs. Carroll Fleming and Mrs. James Lush served the punch; Miss Margaret Fisher and Mrs. Martin Huse poured. Mrs. Edward Kaczor and Mrs. Conrad Fricke served the cake which was in the shape of an open Bible decorated by Mrs. Axel Borg. The Misses Carolyn Ross, Sharon Sheridan and Mrs. Harlan Sediv served the bride's table and Mrs. Edward Tate, Misses Janet Dickey, Jane Dickey and Cheryl Dickey assisted at the gift table.
