—Thoughts from Great Minds—
 Life is certainly worthwhile as it represents struggle for worthy causes. I am quite certain that the human being could not continue to exist if he had perfect security.

—Dwight D. Eisenhower

We are establishing an all time world record in the production of material things. What we lack is a righteous and dynamic faith in God, without it all else awaits us little.

—John Foster Dulles

My country owes me nothing, it gave me, as it gives every boy and girl a chance, it gave me schooling, independence of action, opportunity for service and action.

—Herbert Hoover

If you would civilize a man, begin with his grandmother.

—Victor Hugo

We can do anything we want to do if we stick to it long enough.

—Helen Keller

My hope is that, when I am gone, my son will remember me not from battle, but in the home, repeating with him one simple prayer, "Our Father which art in heaven".

—General Douglas MacArthur

Going to church doesn't make you a christian any more than going to a garage makes you an automobile.

—Billy Sunday

When I was a boy of 14, my father was so ignorant that I could hardly stand to have the old man around. But when I got to be 21 I was astonished at how much he had learned in seven years.
