Midgets Win Over Plainview 7-1 In Tourney

The O'Neill Legion Midgets swept through their first round of action Tuesday evening in the Elgin Invitational Tournament being held this week at Elgin.

The local Midgets collected five singles, drew seven walks, and dumped Plainview 7-1. Big Ivan Hurley tossed a three-hitter and whiffed 14, bringing his strike-out total to 104 in the eight games he has pitched.

The O'Neill squad, under the fine coaching of Fred Appleby and Clyde McKenzie, will return to Elgin Friday evening to play the winner of the Elgin-Clearwater contest. This finals game will be played at 8:30 Friday evening.

Johnson Wins Pony Game Wednesday

Southpaw Russ Johnson pitched and hit the O'Neill Pony Leaguers to a 4-3 triumph over Atkinson Wednesday evening. Mike Mancuso was the losing pitcher. Johnson homered with one on in the third inning.

Junior Legion Split Two Games During Week

The O'Neill Junior Legion won two and lost two this past week, bringing their record to 15 victories and seven losses.

On Thursday evening, Gregory handed O'Neill a 7-3 setback. Winning pitcher Terry Flakus scattered three singles while striking out nine. Starter Keith Reynoldson was charged with the loss, he was followed on the mound by Lyle Stewart in the third.

Sam Knepper, Lyle Stewart, and Keith Reynoldson accounted for the losers' only hits. Catcher Terry Kurtz suffered a broken thumb in the fourth inning, he will be out of action from three to four weeks.

Reynoldson Hurls No-hitter Sunday at Stuart

At Stuart on Sunday afternoon, Keith Reynoldson registered the fourth Junior Legion no-hitter of the season and his first in a 9-2 triumph. Lyle Stewart's perfect game and Denny Wentz's two no-hitters account for the other three pitching masterpieces.

The Elgin Junior Legion calmed O'Neill 9-1 Sunday evening. Ray Belina's fourth-inning single was the only hit the losers could muster off Elgin's Terry Scannel. Keith Reynoldson, Ray Belina, and Rich Hill took turns on the mound for O'Neill, allowing only two singles and a double between them. Elgin took advantage of seven walks and three errors to account for their runs.

Legion Wins 5-1 Over Butte Tuesday Night

Denny Wentz pitched O'Neill back into the win column Tuesday evening with his seventh mound victory of the year, a 5-1 two-hit performance over Butte. The veteran right-hander fanned 13 while walking four in the regulation seven-inning contest.

The local Legion took advantage of two errors, a walk, and two singles to score three times in the third frame off starter and loser Tom Fernau; then added single tallies in the fourth and sixth innings.

Ray Belina tripled and Lyle Stewart singled twice to pace O'Neill at the plate.

Midgets Dump Clearwater, 10-4 Here Sunday

On Sunday, the local Legion Midgets avenged an earlier 5-1 loss to Clearwater by racking them 10-4 here in O'Neill.

Lefty Danny Wolfe allowed five singles, fanned 11, and registered his third victory in as many decisions in his role as a starter.

Ivan Hurley singled twice and Jack Kelly doubled to provide the punch in O'Neill's seven-hit attack.

The Midgets will travel to Bloomfield Sunday afternoon after winding up their play in the Elgin Tourney this week. Then Sunday evening, they'll collaborate with the local Pony League in playing host to Elgin in a doubleheader beginning at 6:00.

Braves' 3-0 Win Edges Atkinson Into Second Spot

The O'Neill Braves regained sole possession of first place in the Elkhorn Valley standings by white-washing Atkinson 3-0 Friday. Jim Booth was credited with the win.

All the Brave runs came across in the fourth frame off starter and loser Rick Hamik.

Casey Tomlinson batted the Cardinals to a 5-3 extra-inning win over Ewing. The deciding Redbird tallies were scored in the eighth inning.

Mighty Casey cracked a two run round tripper in the third, and then led off the eighth with a single. Mike Vernal followed with a double, and Glen Jenkins' single drove across the winning runs.

Tom Donohoe scattered seven hits while receiving the mound verdict. Hahlback was the loser. In a non-league game Tuesday evening, Randy Nickeson pitched the Cardinals to a 7-4 victory over Page.

Senators Win In T-Shirt League

In games in the "T-Shirt League" last Thursday, Bill Artus' Dodgers slid by the White Sox 6-3 in two extra innings. Jerry McKamy pitched the win, Gary Klusman started on the mound for the losers but reliever Tom Wolfe was charged with the loss.

Bobby Hovey pitched the Giants to a 3-2 win over the Tigers. Terry Cleveland was the loser.

The Senators and the Yankees played twice last week. Thursday night the Yankees emerged the victors in a 6-5 contest, but Friday's make-up game turned the tables and the Senators won 3-2.

All four games played in the "T-Shirt League" this week were decided by a single run. Next Thursday the Dodgers play the Yankees, the Tigers meet the Senators, and the Giants battle the White Sox.
