Sally Brewster and Don Schmaderer Married In Stuart

St. Boniface Catholic church was the scene August 11 of the wedding of Sally J. Brewster, Stuart and Don Schmaderer, Loup City. The 11 a.m. double ring nuptial Mass was solemnized by the Rev. A. J. Paschang.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Brewster and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Schmaderer, Jr.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, appeared in a traditional white gown of silk tulle. A bateau neckline featured applique Guipure lace medallions with elbow length sleeves repeating the lace applique. An empire lace again was repeated above the princess skirt and at the back followed as a border to the end of the square cut cathedral length train. Her veil of illusion was held in place by a tiny seed pearl crown. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis on a lace fan.

Jim Hytek, Stuart, sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Ave Maria" accompanied by Mrs. Robert Hook, Rushville.

Janet Brewster, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a satin ballerina length gown of romance blue, fashioned with a scooped neckline and cap sleeves. The peplum skirt was caught with self fabric rose. She wore a matching bow hat. The bridesmaid, Jeanette Jardee, Omaha, was gowned identically. They carried small white candles surrounded by roses.

Jim Schmaderer, brother of the bridegroom, acted as bestman. Mel Schmaderer was groomsman. Ushers were Maurice Schmaderer and Jim Schwartz. Linda Brewster and Mike Brewster, cousins of the bride, were flower girl and ring bearer.

Following the ceremony a dinner was given in the Town House in O'Neill for the wedding party and out-of-town guests.

A reception was given in the bride's home at 2:30 for 200 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Schmaderer will live in St. Paul where the bridegroom will be football coach at St. Paul public school.
