

Roh, Welch Wed Saturday In Catholic Ceremony

St. Ludger Catholic church, Creighton, was the scene for the September 15 wedding of Janice Carolyn Roh and Jack H. Welch. The 10:30 a.m. ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Raymond Roh, cousin of the bride.

Parents of the couple are Dr. and Mrs. Roman C. Roh, Creighton and Mr. and Mrs. William Dufek, Verdigre.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, chose an original gown designed by Priscilla of Boston, of silk mist taffeta and peau d'ange lace. The fitted bodice with natural waistline, had a capelet of lace which included the short sleeves of unusual design. The front of the capelet was lightly frosted with pearls and opalescent sequins. A sheath effect was designed into the skirt front. A wide band of lace at the bottom of the slipper tip skirt was embroidered to the skirt with seed pearls. From either side of the sheath the taffeta of the skirt flared out to a graceful carriage train. An exquisite headpiece of pearl tips held the bride's two tier bouffant veil of imported French mums centered with a single white orchid.

Shirley Roh, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Carol Muegling, Omaha and Mary Jo Malm, Omaha, were bridesmaids. They wore identical dresses of silk faced organza in ice blue. The bodice of the sheath featured a shallow scoop neckline and three quarter sleeves. The pencil slim skirts extended from a natural waistline front. An overskirt of unpressed pleats graced the gowns. Their headpieces were pill-box hats, fashioned of the same material as the dresses, with short bouffant illusion veils. They carried white and copper wicker parasols with a cascade arrangement of bronze spider mums and french mums.

Bill Vejvoda, Grand Island was best man. Groomsman were Virgil Vonasek, Verdigre and Joe Wingert, Arlington, Ia. Ushers were Jim Manion, Creighton and Arlie Nelson, Verdigre. Teri Manion was flower girl and Gary Zerbe was ring bearer. Following the ceremony a dinner-reception was held at the Creighton Municipal Hall for 300 guests. Mr. and Mrs. Kevin Kocina were hosts for the reception. After a wedding trip to Colorado and Wyoming the couple will reside on the bridegroom's ranch west of Verdigre.

Barbara Richtig, Delano Scholl Wed In Catholic Rite

St. Mary's Catholic church, Leigh, was the scene of the wedding of Barbara Jean Richtig and Delano Scholl, Saturday, September 15.

The Rev. Eugene Kerwin officiated at the 10 a.m. double ring ceremony. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Lumier Richtig, Leigh and Mrs. Edith Scholl, Ewing.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a gown of bridal satin and lace. The fitted sequin covered bodice featured a scalloped neckline and long sleeves pointed at the wrists. The bouffant skirt was floor length. Her elbow length veil of French illusion was held in place by a jeweled crown. She carried a bouquet of white mums.

Marjorie Richtig, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Patty Relehrod, Clarkston, cousin of the bride was bridesmaid. Miss Richtig wore a street length gown of melon colored satin with net overskirt. Miss Relehrod wore a gown of cotton blue, styled identical to that of the maid of honor. Each had matching headpieces and carried bouquets of mums.

A dinner was served to one hundred friends and relatives after the ceremony, with the parents of the bride as hosts, followed by a reception. Mr. Scholl, who has completed his service in the U. S. Army, has a farm near Leigh where the couple will make their home. Pledges of Fraternity Rolland Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Johnson has pledged Alpha Tau Omega fraternity at the University of Missouri in Columbia.

Faye Allen Marries Gary Eppenbach In Wolbach Rite Saturday

Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m. in the Trinity Lutheran church in Wolbach, Miss Paula Faye Allen became the bride of Gerry Dean Eppenbach, St. Libory. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Selma Allen, Wolbach and the late Ervin E. Allen. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Elsa Eppenbach, O'Neill and the late Fred Eppenbach.

The Rev. H. Vorrath performed the double ring ceremony before an altar adorned with baskets of peach gladiolas and lilac carnations, accented with lilac bows. The aisle was carpeted in white with white satin bows marking the pews.

Clarice Thayer sang "All For You," "The Wedding Prayer" and "I Love Thee", accompanied at the organ by her mother, Mrs. Clarence Thayer.

The bride, escorted down the aisle by her brother, Howard Allen, wore a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace and tulle. The basque bodice featured a sweetheart neckline edged with hand-clipped scalloped lace and trimmed with iridescent sequins and tiny seed pearls. The voluminous skirt over an underskirt of tiers of net ruffles, was of lace with diamond shape net inserts trimmed with lace rosette appliques. Her veil of sheer illusion floated to waist length from a queen's crown of pearls. She carried a lavender Cattleya orchid on a white Bible from which showered streamers and garlands of seed pearls.

Mrs. Warren Townsend was her sister's matron of honor. She was attired in an apricot street-length dress of silk organza over matching taffeta. The fitted bodice featured a round neckline and elbow-length sleeves. The full bell-type skirt had bows with hand-clipped scalloped lace. White net designed the headpiece which held a circular veil. She carried a colonial bouquet of lilac carnations.

Joyce Ann Krogh Weds Lyle Wyatt By Candlelight

Baskets of white gladioli decorated the altar of the Assembly of God church for the candlelight wedding of Miss Joyce Ann Krogh and Lyle Edwin Wyatt. The Rev. Ivan Christopherson officiated at the 8 p.m. ceremony.

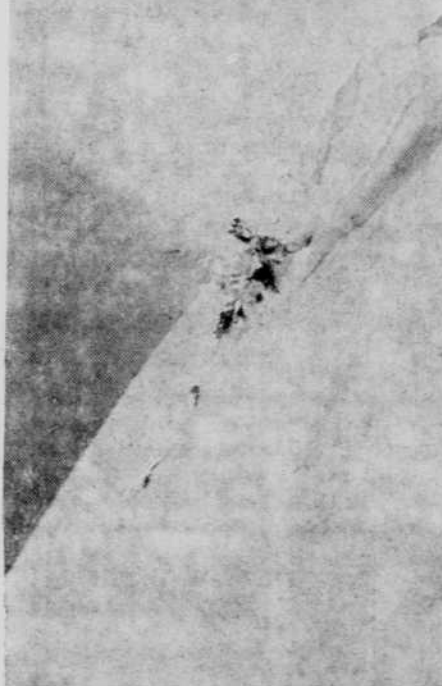

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Krogh, was given in marriage by her father, Mrs. William Wyatt, Minneapolis, Minn., is the bridegroom's mother.

For her wedding the bride wore her sister's wedding gown of white silk bombazine and alabrica neckline and cathedral train. A jeweled crown held her silk illusion elbow length veil. She carried a bouquet of red roses on a white Bible. Her only jewelry was a pearl pendant, a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. LaVern Peterson, Springfield, Mo., sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Mrs. Nylar Rowse, sister of the bride, was bride's matron. They wore street length dresses of red velvet with black accessories and carried colonial bouquets of white and red pompons.

Gayle Garwood, Chambers, was flower girl and Billy Jenkins, O'Neill, served as ring bearer. Candle lighters were Nylar Rowse and Bob Jenkins. They also seated the guests.

Donald Wyatt, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Groomsman was Harvey Coifax. Following the ceremony a reception for 150 guests was given in the church basement by the bride's parents. Connie Brockman had charge of the guest book. Lorene Wetzler, Cheryl Redinger and Delores Rosenkrans were in charge of the gift table. Marsha Slattery served coffee. The bride's table was served by Norma Walters and Mrs. James Mlnarik, Ewing.

Sobotka, Bohn Wed September 11 In Catholic Ceremony
