

Marlene Schmaderer, Ed Sargent Exchange Wedding Vows

Marlene Schmaderer and Ed Sargent were united in marriage Sept. 29 in St. Boniface Catholic church in Stuart. The Rev. Father Paschang solemnized the 11 a.m. ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Alais Schmaderer, Stuart and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon L. Sargent, Grand Island.

Sister Vera O.S.F. accompanied soloist, Jim Hytrek on the organ.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a Paris Original designed in peau-de-saie. The princess lines were draped at the side with a cluster of embroidered alencon lace. A basque bodice featured a bateau neckline edged with alencon lace and trimmed with garlands of sequins and tiny seed pearls. The long sleeves tapered to traditional bridal points at the wrists. The modified bell shaped skirt fell in to a chapel length train. Her bouffant fingertip veil was held by a Swedish crown of lace trimmed with sequins and pearls. She carried a bouquet of baby mums.

Karen Schmaderer, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Doris Schmaderer and Marlene Kaup were bridesmaids. They wore identical dresses designed in a ballerina length of brown florentine lace over champagne satin. They carried one single stem bronze colored mum.

Jack Sargent, Grand Island was best man. Groomsmen were Morris Schmaderer, Omaha and Ronald Dold, Ainsworth. Kenneth Kulus and Gerald Schmaderer were ushers.

A dinner was given at the Stuart auditorium for 72 guests.

The couple will reside at Copperas Cove, Tex.

The bride is a graduate of Stuart high school with the class of '58 and has been employed in the office of St. Francis hospital, Grand Island.

The bridegroom graduated from Grand Island high school and attended Wesleyan University for three years.

Appelt, Kopejka Married Saturday In Ainsworth

Judy Ann Appelt, Ainsworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Appelt and Albert Kopejka, jr., Inman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kopejka, were married September 29 in the Congregational church, Ainsworth. The Rev. Gordon Jensen officiated at the 2 p. m. ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of net over taffeta. The bodice, covered with lace, was decorated with sequins and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of red roses with white bows.

Joanna Beth Lewis, Chadron, friend of the bride, was maid of honor. Deanna Taylor, Ainsworth, was bridesmaid. They wore identical sheath dresses of red velvet and carried red carnation bouquets.

Roy Appelt, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushers were Jim Appelt and Gordon Smith. The flower girl, Carol Appelt, wore a white velvet dress with red velvet bows and carried a basket of red rose petals. Brad Davis was ring bearer.

Following the ceremony a reception was held for 125 guests in fellowship hall.

You won't want to miss this one

Here's what the other '63's wish they looked like.

Today—Wide-Track Pontiac '63

Obvious, isn't it, that Pontiac's come up with another beauty this year. Fresh over-and-under headlights, clean profile—but you can see that. There's a wider Wide-Track, too, and a full line of Trophy V-6's. [That ought to be enough to make these other cars turn green.] And we haven't mentioned such happy touches as self-adjusting brakes. So what, pray tell, could be keeping you from a new Pontiac of your own? A small suggestion. Don't run down to see one. Call! Wide-Track Pontiac
