LaDonna McNulty and Walter Grosse Wed in Catholic Ceremony

Baskets of fall flowers decorated St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill Saturday for the wedding of LaDonna McNulty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James McNulty and Walter R. Grosse, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Grosse, all of O'Neill. Rev. Robert Duffy officiated at the 10 a.m. double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Nick Ramold, accompanied by Sister M. Flores at the organ was the soloist. She sang "Oh Most Holy One", "Oh Blessed Are Those Who Fear The Lord", and "Oh Mary My Mother".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle. The fitted bodice featured long tapered sleeves ending in wrist, jeweled sequins and tiny seed pearls accented the scalloped sash. The bouffant skirt was of lace with scalloped tulle. Her veil of silk illusion was caught by a crown of sequins and tiny seed pearls.

She carried two white cymbidiums on a white prayer book; a gift of the groom.

Maid of honor for her cousin was Rita Vequist, O'Neill. Bridesmaid was Mrs. Delbert Hilkemeier, Orlando, Fla., sister of the groom.

They wore identical sheath dresses of apricot satin with fitted bodices, short sleeves and a scoop neck. A detachable belted overskirt was self bow accented the draped shorter front hemline, flowing down to regular length at the back hemline. Matching shoes and headpieces completed their ensembles. They carried cascade bouquets of gold color mums accented by showers of multicolored ribbons.

Ruth and Rae Grutsch, twin cousins of the bride, shared the honor of flower girls. They wore dresses of apricot lace trimmed satin with matching headbands and carried baskets of fall flowers.

Thomas Hilkemeier, nephew of the groom, carried the rings on a white satin and lace pillow which was made and presented to the bride by her aunt, Mrs. John Imming.

Serving as best man for his brother was Aze Kenneth Grosse, Shreveport, La. Morris Pongratz, O'Neill, cousin of the bride was the groomsman. Ushers were Richard Pongratz, O'Neill and S/Sgt. Delbert Hilkemeier, Orlando, Fla. All men of the wedding party wore dark suits with white carnation boutonnieres.

The bride's mother chose a dress of navy blue crepe with matching accessories. The mother of the groom wore a green and brown nylon jersey dress with brown accessories. Each wore a white carnation corsage.

Following the ceremony a dinner was served for the wedding party at the parish hall. A reception from 2 to 4 o'clock was given at St. Patrick's hall by the bride's parents. Acting as hostesses were Mrs. Bernard Pongratz and Mrs. Lyle Vequist, aunts of the bride. Mrs. Ben Bazelman had charge of the guest book. Serving the punch were Evalyn McNulty and Rita Boyle. Mrs. Harry Lansworth and Dianne Moeller cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Larry Strong poured coffee. Recording the gifts were Mrs. Max Bohn, Mrs. Robert Burival and Mrs. Dick Henning.

The bride, a graduate of St. Mary's Academy, is employed by St. Anthony's hospital. The groom, a graduate of Creighton high school, is employed by Gillette's Dairy.

For traveling the bride chose a red jersey dress with black accessories. Following a short wedding trip the couple will make their home at 213 1/2 N. 2nd St., O'Neill.
