

Barbara Nickless, Roland Holbrook Are Married at Stuart

The wedding of Barbara Ann Nickless and Roland D. Holbrook, both of Stuart was solemnized at St. Boniface Catholic church at Stuart Saturday morning, Oct. 27. The Rev. A. Paschang performed the double ring ceremony in a 10 o'clock service.

Red and gold mums decorated the altar for the occasion.

The parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Nickless and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Holbrook are the groom's parents. All are of Stuart.

Jack Hytrek, accompanied by Sr. Mary Vera, sang "Ave Maria", "On This Day" and "Oh Beautiful Mother".

The bride appeared in a wedding gown of Chantilly lace fashioned with a sequin and pearl trimmed V neckline with an added touch of pleated tulle. Tiers of lace and pleated tulle fell into a chapel train. Her fingertip veil was French illusion with a sequin and pearl crown. She carried red roses on a white satin prayer book.

Mary Pat Nickless, Stuart, sister of the bride was maid of honor. Carolyn Schiles, sister of the groom, Mapleton, Ia., and Jean Obermire, also of Stuart, were her bridesmaids. All three attendants wore sheaths of red velvet and were complemented by satin cummerbund. They carried nosegay bouquets of white pom-poms.

Flower girl was Diane Koester, Story City, Ia., cousin of the bride. Norman King, Stuart, nephew of the groom was ring bearer.

Gerold Herrick, Stuart, friend of the groom, served as best man. Jim and John Nickless, brothers of the bride, ushered.

The bride is a graduate of the Stuart high school class of '32 while the groom is also a Stuart graduate, class of '38.

The groom is employed by the Stuart creamery.

A dinner was served following the ceremony for 50 guests. One hundred and seventy five guests attended the reception.

The wedding cake was baked, decorated and served by Mrs. Walt Knapp.

Jan Brewster poured coffee and Patty VanCleve served punch.

Mrs. Marion Davis and Mrs. Florence Scholz hosted the event.

Maureen Coufal presided over the guest book and Anne Mueller, assisted by Karen Schmaderer and Ann Brayton were in charge of the gift table.

The couple entertained at a wedding dance before leaving for Colorado Springs for a short wedding trip. They will be at home at Stuart after Nov. 1.
