

Frontiers Ago

50 YEARS AGO
The Frontier wishes all its readers, both big and little, a Merry Merry Christmas and a happy and prosperous New Year. . . Sheriff Grady left Wednesday morning for Fremont where he will attend the annual meeting of the Nebraska Sheriff's association, which is being held in that city this week. . . J. J. Thomas, J. B. Mellor, Charles McKenna and Gene Sullivan left this morning for Grand Island to witness the ten round boxing contest between Jack Sullivan and Young McCarthy of Revena, Nebr., which will be pulled off in that city tonight. . . Evang. Lutheran church, Sunday, Dec. 22, 1912. English services with preaching will be held at the church at 3 p.m. . . Editor Lee Henry of the Plainview News was in the city yesterday visiting old friends. Lee is naturally feeling good since the election of Woodrow Wilson and says that bright and happy days are in store for Democrats.

25 YEARS AGO
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McElvain are rejoicing over the arrival of

Christmas Blessings

May the joys and blessings of Christmas abide with you.

Harry and Helen GILDERSLEEVE
O'Neill, Nebraska

a little daughter at their home, born last Monday. . . Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Carter of this city celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary last Sunday. The only festivity of the day was a dinner at the home of their son, Dr. L. A. Carter. Fred Beckwith, Emmet, was again reelected chairman of the Holt County ACA at their meeting held in O'Neill last Monday. This is the third term for President Beckwith and will be his fifth year as a member of the county committee. . . Many of our local residents have been expressing the belief that the weather the past week was the coldest we have had in this section for several years. Dec. 8 it was 10 below zero. . . It is said that $25,000,000,000 has vanished from the value of American securities during the past two months and somebody wants to know where it is. Perhaps it has gone into the "kitty" of the New Deal.

10 YEARS AGO

Persons from Holt, Boyd and Knox counties gathered here Tuesday for the first in a series of four official hearings called by Gov. Val Peterson in regard to the bureau of reclamation's proposal for development of the Niobrara river basin. . . Benton Mellor, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mellor of Atkinson, is one of four Nebraskans winning 1952 national 4-H honors in the beautification of home ground division of competition. . . Cpl. Gene Livingston reports that he saw President Dwight Eisenhower when he was in their camp recently. His unit was stationed six miles out of Panmunjin in Korea at the time. . . Coyotes are becoming quite numerous in the Deloit vicinity, several having been sighted within the past week. Some of them appear to be rather bold.

5 YEARS AGO

Mr. and Mrs. Claude P. Hancock, 1929 Claudins Ave, Los Angeles, Calif., former O'Neill residents, on Christmas day will be observing their 50th wedding anniversary. . . O'Neill's new bowling alley prepares for Saturday's opening. The new firm will be known as Ten Pin Alley. Technicians today will be putting the finishing touches on the elaborate equipment. . . Dr. R. E. Kriz, 65, prominent physician and surgeon in Lynch since 1921, died about noon Friday, Dec. 13, in Clarkson Memorial hospital at Omaha. . . An advance shipment of small items — pole insulators, etc., — have arrived for O'Neill's television booster installation. None of the major equipment has yet been received. . . Mr. and Mrs. Dave Pollock celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary

The Long Ago At Chambers

50 YEARS AGO
Fred Schroter's little boy, Henry had the misfortune to break his leg Sunday while playing in the house. Dr. Gill was called at once to repair the broken limb and reports the boy as getting along nicely. . . Dr. E. E. Dillon gave a very interesting lecture Wednesday evening accompanied by stereoptican views. . . Art Cowperwaite and Froelich were down from O'Neill the first of the week, buying horses in this vicinity. . . Miss Topsy Turvy at the Band Hall, Friday evening. A big laugh for everybody. Frank Liehart went to Omaha Tuesday morning after a new Studebaker "25" Touring Car. Dr. Bernard accompanied him to secure repairs for his car which has been laid up for a week. . . We understand that John Liehart has sold his harness shop and business to E. V. Sageser, who will take possession as soon as possible.

25 YEARS AGO

On Tuesday, Dec. 14, Miss Zetia Hubbard and Dr. C. M. Eason, both of Chambers, were quietly married at the court house in Omaha, Nebr., by Judge Crawford. . . The Amelia bridge team Fullerton, Waldo, Reisinger and Sageser were again defeated Saturday night at Elmer Wandersee by Catlett, Lamason, Carson and Wandersee. . . LaVerne Walter was a member of the 120 voice chorus which gave the fourth annual presentation of Handel's Messiah in Wayne last Sunday evening. . . C. E. Tibbets delivered his first 1938 Model Ford, a Standard Tudor to John Hall of Swan Lake vicinity, Saturday, having driven it up from Omaha that day. . . Allie Sammons are remodeling their residence on their farm a mile south of Amelia; adding on four rooms and an enclosed porch making it much more convenient and modern.

The Ponton Agency
O'Neill, Nebraska

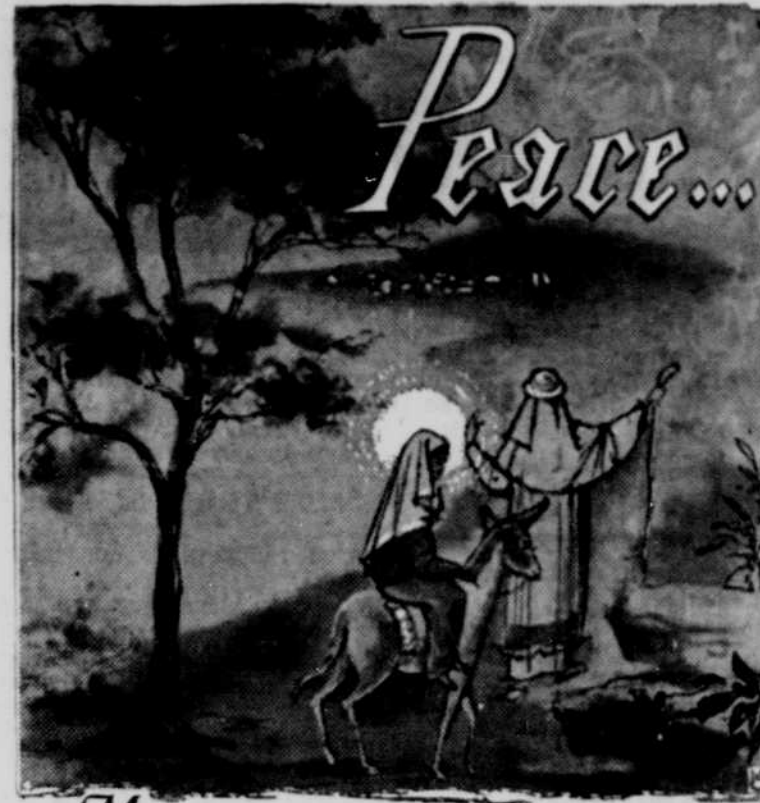

Central Finance
O'Neill, Nebraska

Merry Christmas
Our warmest wishes to all our good friends!

O'Neill Cleaners
O'Neill, Nebraska

May the Christmas spirit of Peace on Earth come to dwell in the hearts of all.

WM. KROTTER CO.
O'Neill, Spencer, Stuart and Naper

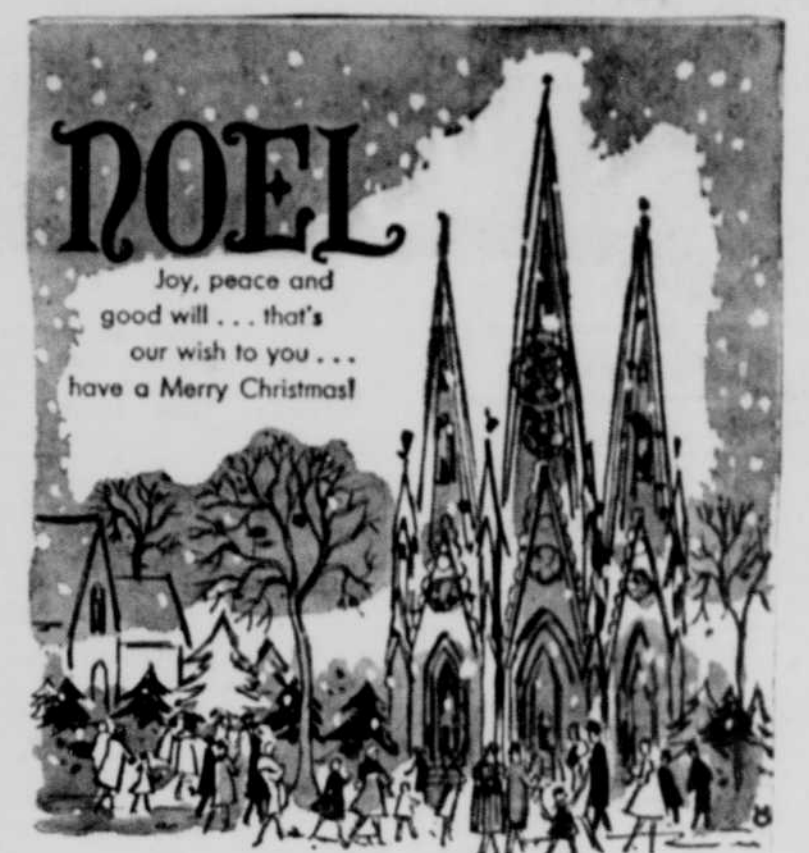

Christmas comes but once a year... and always such a happy time for all of us to wish all of you and your families every Christmas joy!

TROPICAL GARDENS
Mary and Durl Anderson
O'Neill, Nebraska

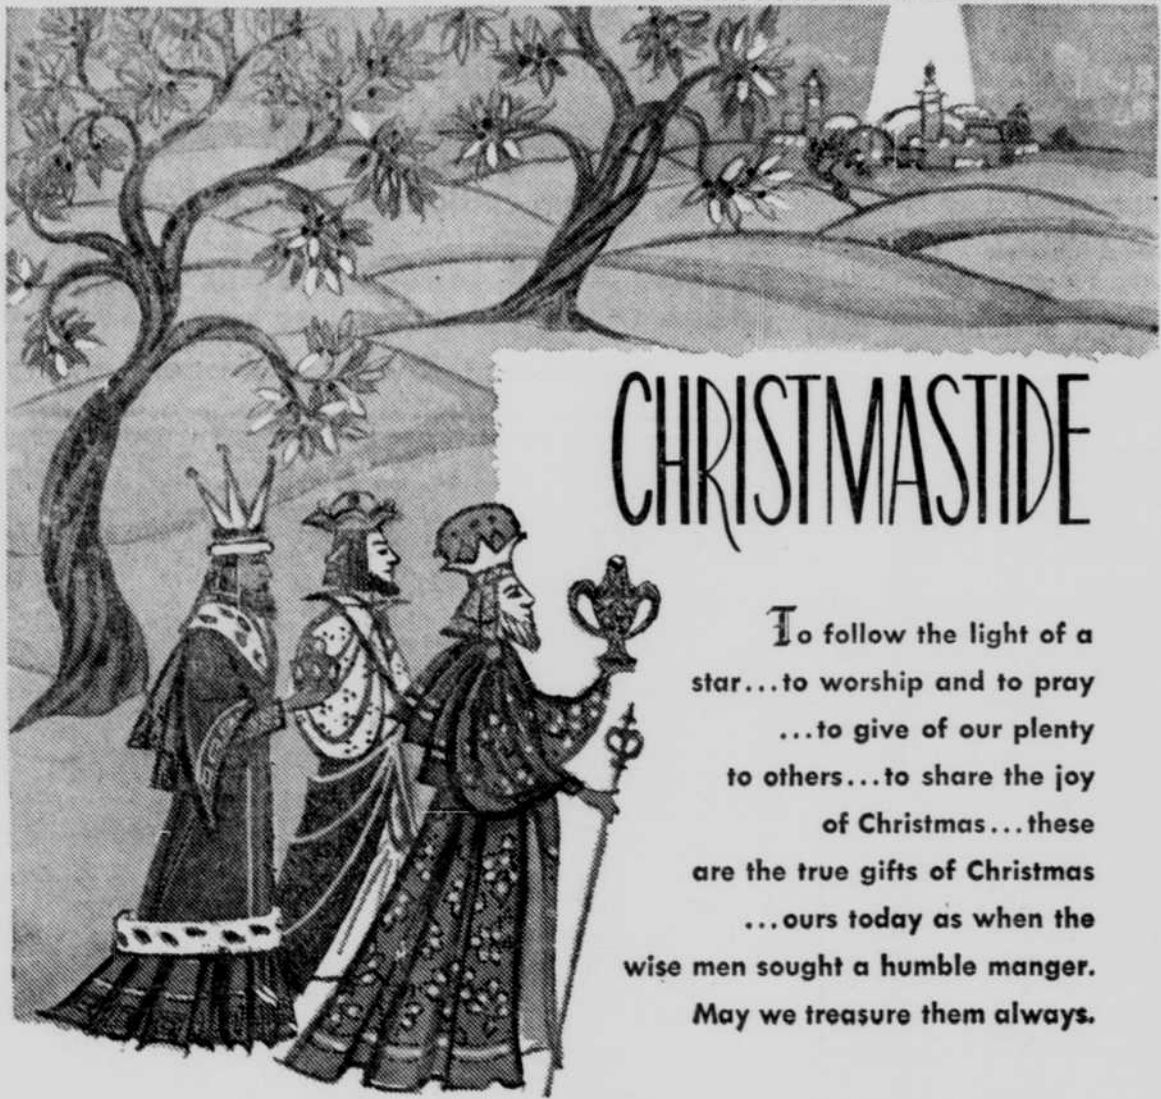

DANKERTS SERVICE
O'Neill Chambers

A & M SHOE STORE
Archie and Mary Bowen

O'NEILL STYLE SHOP
Leona Hynes — Mrs. M. A. Schelkopf

GILLETTE DAIRY

O'NEILL

NEBRASKA

Christmas Greetings

The Christmas candle reflects the bright spirit in which we send you our best wishes for a Season filled with Joy and Happiness.

LEE STORES

Nina — Josephine — Dorothy — Jenny — Genelle — Eileen
Rubie — Sharleen — Marie — Charles — Chuck — Mr. Longstaff

CHRISTMAS

Time to wish all our loyal friends and customers a Christmas season filled with joy and happiness, and express our sincere gratitude for their patronage.

