"500" Chairman To Evaluate O'Neill Band Word was received this week from Al Wright, chairman of the "500" Festival thanking Mr. Houston and the band for their application to participate in the '63 Festival.

"We would like very much to have an opportunity to evaluate your O'Neill band for inclusion in the '63 parade. I assure you that your application will be given an early evaluation when it is received. As a former high school band director myself I understand the many problems involved in a band's making a trip such as this. The financial demands are extensive, however, I do know that the educational values received are well worth the time and money that goes into making a trip such as this."

As of today there is still no definite set amount needed for the trip as transportation charges have not been received yet. However, the band students from both high schools making the trip have voted to pledge $15 per student from their own pockets to help get the fund started. This is to come from money earned outside the group projects set up by the finance committee for sponsoring the trip, should they be fortunate enough to be accepted.

The first "project" scheduled, is a food sale at Safeway this Shaul was elected president, ac-Saturday.

Telephone Co. Considers Plan For Free Calls

Northwestern Bell Telephone Company will begin a canvass of its O'Neill customers tomorrow concerning a plan to remove the long distance charges for calls to several nearby towns.

C. R. Alexander, Northwestern Bell manager, said, "The community of interest between O'-Neill and the towns of Atkinson, Butte, Spencer, Bristow, Inman and Chambers has grown to the point that there is a sizeable volume of long distance calling between the towns. Many of our customers have stated that they would be willing to pay a little more for their local telephone service and have the long distance charges on calls between these towns eliminated. This expanded service plan can be provided for O'Neill if a substantial majority express their opinion in favor of the plan.

"Under the proposed plan, for a small difference in the monthly rates, customers will be able to dial calls to tele phones in the other six towns as often as they like without a long distance charge. Also, there would no longer be long distance charge on calls dialed from those towns to O'-Neill telephones."

Alexander stated, "In communities where this service is being furnished, customers have found that it is more than worth the small differences. In fact, to many customers, it proves to he a saving.'

A return post card will be enclosed with a letter containing information about the plan so customers can indicate their pref-

Invite Local Contractors To Meet January 33 At the last meeting of the Holt

Soil and Water Conservation District Board of Supervisors plans were made for a contractor's meeting to be held January 30. All conservation contractors in this area are invited to be guests of the Holt District, the Gate City Steel Company and heavy equipment dealers.

Thursday, Feb. 7 there will be meeting of the local seed growers who are interested in consigning seed to the District for sale. This meeting will be held at the Court House Annex in O'Neill at 1:30 p.m.

It was also decided to add to the services of the District a spraying program for controlling weeds in new and old shelterbelts, According to Dick Gavit, Extension Forester, Simazin has proved very effective in controlling all types of weeds in the sprayed area until mid or late summer. There has been little or no loss due to the spraying and in most cases the growth and livability have been greatly improved in comparison to belts with no

weed control measures taken. From cost studies of other Districts which have been using similar equipment, the local Board has set up a charge of $3.50 per 1000 feet of tree row. Simazin may be applied to conifers as well as broad leaf trees and is actually more effective in conifer plantings. The spray will cover an area of approximately 20 inches on both sides of the tree row and it is recommended that the area between the rows be cultivated. This may be done in a number of ways, either using a small oneway or corn cultivation equipment or a tandem disc. It is highly recommended that this area be planted to corn, mile or other suitable cover crop to reduce wind erosion. The exact type of spraying equipment to be used will depend largely upon the response the District receives from cooperators in the county. This will be determined at the February or March meeting of the board of Supervisors. Anyone interested in this program should feel free to contact the local District office for particulars.
