

Verla Mae Spieker Weds Bill DeLong

Verla Mae Spieker, daughter of Mrs. Verla Spieker, Tracy, Minn. and Bill DeLong, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merle DeLong, Inman, exchanged wedding vows at the Salem Reformed church, Little Rock, Ia., December 28 with the Rev. Frank Snuttjer, performing the double ring ceremony.

Audrey Kruse, Little Rock and Dean DeLong, Rock Rapids, Ia., were the couple's attendants. A reception for the immediate family was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Christians assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Norman Klasseen.

The bride was graduated from the Little Rock high school and has been employed in Rock Rapids. The groom who graduated from Inman high school, also attended the Grand Island Business school. He was employed at the Gambles store at Rock Rapids.

Following a short wedding trip the couple are at home at Herman, Nebr., where Mr. DeLong has employment as a bookkeeper.

Janeth Keller Weds Walter L. Leymaster

The Methodist church parsonage in Atkinson was the scene of the wedding Sunday afternoon, Jan. 13 at 2:30 of Walter L. Leymaster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Leymaster, Broken Bow and Janeth Keller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Keller, Atkinson. Rev. Milan Coleman performed the double ring ceremony before the immediate families of the couple.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a white velvet street length dress, featuring three quarter tapered sleeves and a large collar coming to a V in front which she herself fashioned. Her corsage was white carnations and red roses. Her only attendant, Mrs. Floyd Myers, Broken Bow, wore a dress of yellow wool with black accessories. Her corsage was white carnations.

The bridegroom was attired in the dress blue uniform of the U. S. Navy. Floyd Myers, Broken Bow, served as best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Keller chose a brown wool sheath dress with brown and beige accessories. Mrs. Leymaster wore a beige lace dress with black accessories. Both had white carnation corsages.

A reception was held at the S. Seek House following the wedding. Cake, ice cream and coffee were served. The cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom, was prepared by Mrs. James Atkinson, Broken Bow.

For traveling the bride wore a red wool suit, the short jacket being lined with white velvet and featuring a white velvet roll-back collar.

Mr. and Mrs. Leymaster will leave next week for Cherry Point, N.C. where the groom is currently stationed.
