Mrs. Mark Hendricks

Vincent Allard, Rapid City, S. D., visited with relatives at Abington over the weekend. He was a guest at the home of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Kilmurry and also at the Frank Kilmurry home. His wife is the former Katherine Kilmurry. Vincent was on his way home from a business trip to Sioux City, Ia.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Meyers were callers at the home of their daughter and family, the Raymond Dobias family, last Sunday afternoon.

Miss Beverly Meyers came home for the weekend from her school work in Hastings. She was unable to come home last week because of the weather.

Miss Michele Rzeszotarski is happy this weekend since finding out that the St. Joe High School Pep Club won the Sportsmanship trophy at the basketball game in O'Neill Friday night. Michele is one of the leaders. The others are Ruth Schaaf, Joan Lee, Patricia Schneider and Rita Murphy.

Natchel Rzeszotarski is especially thankful that the Good Samaritan idea is still working. Natchel has been feeling pretty rough with the flu and a bad cough, and Bob Summers, who works for Frank Svoboda, has been stopping in the past few days to help him get started with the work in the mornings.

Bobby Hendricks had a birthday, his eighth, the 11th of January, but due to this severe weather, he didn't get to have his birthday party, so on Thursday night of this week he was entertained at a supper at his grandparents, the Mark and Mrs. Clarence Focken home. Others present for the supper which included a cake that was two and one-half feet long, and contained several pieces of money, were Miss Dorothy Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Klinger and children and Mr. and Mrs. Omer Poynts of Stuart. Mrs. Poynts is Bobby's great grandmother. Bobby received several gifts among which was a large saucer sled which provided the entertainment for the children the rest of the evening.

Clarence Focken Jr. visited at the home of his parents, the Clarence Focken sr., on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Focken sr. are the grandparents of a new boy born to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Focken of Bloomfield. He has been named Ricky Scott.

Mrs. Clarence Focken, who recently spent some time in the hospital, has a good reason to appreciate the telephone. She received calls from the following, a son, Paul and family of Bloomfield, another son, Bill of Hastings, a daughter and family, Alice Ernmons of San Antonio, Tex., another daughter, Phyllis of Denver, Colo., another daughter, Karen of Miller, S. D., a sister, Mrs. Phyllis Allinson of Caney, Kan., a sister-in-law, Mrs. Dorothy Schroeder of Vader, Wash., and last but not least a call from her mother, Mrs. Bessie Hiltz, Yakima, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Focken of Stuart are taking care of little Natalie Focken, daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. Paul Focken, Bloomfield, while her mother is in the hospital with the new baby boy.

Rev. and Mrs. Elmore Blain and sons were afternoon and Sunday supper guests of the Leonard Chaffins.

Mrs. Merrill Anderson reports that her aunt, Mrs. Hugh Grant, a patient in the hospital at Bassett is somewhat improved. We are sure she would enjoy a card from anyone who would like to send one to her, to help pass the hours.

Connie Frickel called at the Mark and Robert Hendricks homes Friday.

Mrs. Frank Detterman visited at the home of Mrs. Alex Frickel Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Frickel and children were supper guests at the Thilo Poesnecker home on Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Poesnecker were guests also.

Mr. and Mrs. William Clausen, O'Neill, were callers at the Merrill Anderson home Tuesday afternoon.

Michele Rzeszotarski stayed overnight with her grandmother, Mrs. Bertha Gonderinger, Monday and Tuesday nights.

Ronnie Laible of Stuart helped at the Rzeszotarski home for several days while his uncle, Natchel Rzeszotarski, was sick with the flu. Ronnie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Laible of Stuart.

Frank Svoboda called at the Rzeszotarski home Wednesday evening, then on Saturday his sons spent the day with Tommy Rzeszotarski.

The Celia Pineoche club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerhardt Mommson on Friday night. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Duke Hoffman and son, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sicheneder and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Sicheneder and children, Mrs. Frank Kilmurry, Mr. and Mrs. Luane Beck and children, Mr. and Mrs. John Schwindt and daughter. The group will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kilmurry February 15. Mrs. Jim Sicheneder won high score and Mrs. John Schwindt second prize in the ladies group, and John Swindt won high and Duke Hoffman won second in the men's group.

Marietta Heiser came up from Norfolk Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. John Sicheneder, who were in Norfolk on business. She accompanied her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Heiser and Linda and Leila to Chamberlain, S. D. Saturday where they visited another daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald McLeish, and attended the Galloway Bull Sale. They returned home Saturday evening. Their son Ralph kept the home fires burning while his folks were gone.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Heiser attended the Dairy meeting held at the annex in O'Neill.

Mr. and Mrs. Duane Beck and children were Saturday supper guests at the home of his mother, Mrs. Helen Beck, in Atkinson. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Johnson and granddaughter, Lynette Batenhorst were guests also.

Vincent Allard, Rapid City, S. D., visited several homes in this community this weekend, including the Hendricks and Beck homes. He is a former resident of this community.
