Dorsey News

By Mrs. Harold Osborn

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ruzicka were lunch guests at the Harold Osborn home on Tuesday. Earlier in the day they called at the Roger Rosenkrans home to attend to some school business.

Mrs. O. Ruzicka's brother, Joe Kubie has been a patient at Sacred Heart hospital in Lynch, recovering from a cold and flu. He goes to his home in O'Neill on Friday.

Miss Sadie Derickson accompanied Rosenkrans to O'Neill where she is going to spend some time with her sisters and mother due to the severe cold weather were having.

Mrs. Clay Mashino had to have a tooth extracted Saturday by a dentist in O'Neill. She is suffering with it as the cold weather seems to bother her jaw where the tooth was removed.

Mrs. Guy Hull was a Saturday shopper in Lynch. She also called at the hospital to see Mrs. T. J. Graham.

Words been received from Rodrick Hughes who is stationed at Granite, Illinois, states that this cold weather is making it very uncomfortable for the boys to work in the shop as they cannot get enough heat in there to keep them warm.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Rosenkrans received word that the dormitory in Springfield, Mo., where their daughter Marion stays and attends college, caught fire, destroying it so badly that the girls had to find other quarters to live in. Some of the girls were attending classes at the time and some of them lost all their clothing as the fire was to much in advance of the fire department to salvage the things from their rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Leman Huber and Mr. and Mrs. Buss Greene visited at the Harold Osborn home Sunday evening.

Mrs. R. L. Hughes accompanied the Osborns to Lynch Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Gillogy and children were Friday evening callers at the R. L. Hughes home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Alm were O'Neill shoppers Friday. Mrs. Alm's mother is not feeling the best and has had to be in bed for a few days this past week.

Miss Lizzie Carson and Mrs. Mary Wolfe braved the cold weather on Thursday and visited Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wilson.

Guy Johnson was admitted to the hospital Friday for a run of X-rays and tests. Friends hope he soon will be able to be back home.

Roger Rosenkrans chimney caught fire Monday morning causing them some inconvenience on these cold mornings as they had to fight the fire to keep it from getting away from them.
