Youth Confab Aims Explained To Farm Bureau

At the County Meeting of the Holt County Farm Bureau held Monday evening at the Court-house Annex, Edward Ethington, Atkinson, gave highlights of the First Annual Nebraska Farm Bureau Federation Youth Conference which he attended recently in Grand Island. Mr. Ethington was a delegate of Holt County Farm Bureau. He explained that the main purposes of the conference were to help young people realize the importance of keeping the individual American free, and to emphasize clearly the goals of Farm Bureau. Areas of study considered in workshops by various speakers were: History, Development, Philosophy, and Beliefs of Farm Bureau; Agriculture, Economics and the Farm Program; Self-analysis and Self-Improvement; and Our American Heritage.

Rudy D. Dvorak, Atkinson, reported briefly on the meeting held recently by Holt, Boyd and Rock County Farm Bureau.

members with Nebraska Senator Frank Nelson, at which time Sen Nelson discussed with the group matters of special interest in the Nebraska Legislature at this time: picketing, state income tax, the lottery bill, and sale of school lands.

Mrs. Everett Hale, Atkinson Women's Chairman, explained the "Freedom Bookshelf" project which is carried out by Farm Bureau women throughout the state, after which the women's committee sponsored a sale of baked goods and plants for the benefit of the "Freedom Bookshelf Fund". Mrs. Robert Van Horn, Page, and Mrs. Vincent Olson, Atkinson, were in charge.

Plans for the May County meeting to be held May 20, include the showing of the film "God's Own Cow Country."

Twenty members were present when the Holt, Rock and Boyd County Farm Bureau organizations met at the courthouse annex, Saturday evening. Senator Frank Nelson, O'Neill, was a guest. Senator Nelson discussed matters of particular interest in relation to various bills being considered by the Nebraska Legislature. Some of the topics he discussed were picketing, sale of school lands, state aid to education.

Mrs. Earl Stewart, Bassett Legislative Chairman, was in charge. A coffee hour followed with Mrs. Marvin Stauffer, Page as hostess.
