The Golden Rod Garden club of Atkinson met Thursday, Apr. 25 at the home of Mrs. Jesse Dobrovolsky with 13 members present. Roll call was answered by naming "Wild flowers for your garden". This meeting was on conservation, and Jim Hart of O'Neill, local game warden, showed a film on "Nebraska Land" by Ray Clark. This film was enjoyed by everyone present.

The comprehensive study, "April plans to make your garden a success", was given by Mrs. Gaines Rzeszotarski. The topic, "Trees from little pods and cones", was given by Mrs. Roy Rles. Mrs. Georgia McGinnis gave some interesting things about the Robin, Chickadee and the yellow headed blackbird, and Mrs. Leon Beckwith reported on an article from the National Gardener. Three members reported on visits to shut ins. Reports on hospital favors given and amateur contest plans were completed.

After the meeting adjourned a Chinese auction was held that netted a nice sum for the club treasury.

The next meeting will be held on May 23 at the home of Mrs. Gaines Rzeszotarski.

The Atkinson Civic Improvement Garden club will hold their annual plant and food sale this Friday and Saturday at the Mill-
