

Judy Tinsley Weds Leroy (Butch) Pofahl In Clearwater Church

Judy Tinsley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Tinsley, Ewing, became the bride of Leroy (Butch) Pofahl, son of Louis Pofahl, Ewing, Saturday, April 27, 1963 at the Concordia Lutheran church, Clearwater. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. D. L. Braumersreuther before an altar decorated with baskets of white and orchid gladiolus and candelabra.

Mrs. Lewis Vandernick, Ewing, was organist, Mrs. Arthur Albers, Clearwater, sang "Payer Perfect" and "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, selected a white organza and Chantilly lace gown. Scalloped lace, encrusted with sequins, formed the square neckline. Long tapered sleeves accented the molded bodice. A panel of Chantilly lace started at the neckline and reached the hemline in front and a double flounce of lace in the back fell into an aisle wide cathedral train. The bouffant skirt was floor length.

A crown of pearls held in place the imported silk illusion veil.

She carried a bouquet of white roses centered with a removable orchid corsage. Nylon net tufts in orchid shades and rhinestones were added accents.

Shirley Tinsley, Omaha, was maid of honor. Leonora Tuttle, Wayne and Gerilyn Ita, Grand Island, were bridesmaids. They wore sheath gowns of silk organza with a full gathered overskirt of organza and net, accented with a bow. Each wore a matching net, pearl trimmed head piece. They carried crescent bouquets of orchid tinted carnations with deep orchid satin loops forming the background. Pam Dietz, Oakdale and Mary Bonnett, Elgin, were flower girls. Timmy Pofahl, was ring bearer. Martin Pofahl, Ewing, served as his brother's best man. Duane Tinsley, and Max Pofahl were groomsmen. Dean Pofahl, Ewing,

Joan Reising Weds Gene Turner in Omaha

Joan Reising, Omaha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Lilly, Ralston, became the bride of Gene Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Turner, O'Neill, April 20 at St. Peter's Catholic church, Omaha. Father Leonard Ziegmann, Fort Dodge, Ia., uncle of the bride, officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, appeared in a white lace over net and taffeta gown with long lace sleeves. She carried a cascade of white roses with white pompoms.

Mrs. Bill Beach, Iowa, was her sister's matron of honor. Karen Ford and Bettie Turner, were bridesmaids. They wore identical dresses of baby blue lace over taffeta and carried colonial carnations and white pompoms.

A dinner followed the reception given by the bride's parents. In the afternoon a reception was held for 100 guests.

The bride has been employed with Mutual of Omaha Insurance Company, Omaha.

The groom is presently employed with O'Neill Transfer Co.

After a trip to the Black Hills they will be at home at 610 East Everett, O'Neill.

A Poem From Mrs. Eby . . .

—Your Neighbor—
 Do you know the neighbor who lives on your block?
 Do you ever take time for a bit of a talk?
 Do you know his troubles, his heartaches, his cares,
 The battles he's fighting, the burdens he bears?
 Do you greet him with joy or pass him right by,
 With a questioning look and a quizzical eye?
 Do you bid him "good morning" and "How do you do"?
 Or shrug up as if he was nothing to you?
 He may be a chap with a mighty big heart,
 And a welcome that grips, if you do your part.
 And I know you'll coax out his sunniest smile,
 If you'll stop with this neighbor and visit awhile.
 We rush on so fast in these strenuous days,
 We're apt to find fault when its better to praise.
 We judge a man's worth by the make of his car,
 We're anxious to find what his politics are,
 But somehow it seldom gets under the hide,
 The fact that the fellow we're living beside,
 Is a fellow like us, with a hankering too.
 For a grip of the hand and a "How do you do"?
 With a heart that responds to a welcome sincere,
 If you'll just stop to fling him a message of cheer.
 I know you'll coax out his sunniest smile,
 If you'll stop with this neighbor and visit awhile.

Jeannine McElhaney, Frederick W. Grothe Wed in Lincoln Rite

Jeannine McElhaney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted McElhaney, O'Neill, became the bride of Frederick William Grothe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Grothe, Sutton, Sunday, May 5, 1963, at the Vine Congregational church in Lincoln. The 2:30 p.m. ceremony was performed by the Rev. Verne A. Spindell before an altar decorated with a bouquet of white gladioli and candelabra.

Mrs. Willis Moreland, Lincoln, soloist sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Wedding Prayer" accompanied by Mrs. P. C. Swift, Lincoln organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looking radiant in a full length gown of silk organza, featuring a scoop neckline, long sleeves tapering to a bridal point at the wrists and a flowing chapel train. Alenon lace and tiny seed pearls complimented the bodice and front of skirt. She carried a bouquet of white sweet-heart roses on a white Bible.

Faye Craig, Columbus, was maid of honor. Mrs. Bruce McElhaney, Lincoln, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Betty McElhaney, Lincoln, and Janet Grothe, Des Moines, Ia. They wore lilac street length gowns of silk over taffeta featuring a scoop neckline and accented with a low in the back. Each wore a matching headpiece and carried colonial bouquets of sterling silver roses with pink tulle.

Fred Grothe, father of the groom, served as his son's best man. Bruce McElhaney, Lincoln, Marvin Damme, Wichita, Kan., and Carl Scheller, McCook, ushered.

A reception was held in the church parlors for over two hundred guests following the ceremony.

The five tier wedding cake ornamented with bells was cut by Mrs. H. D. McElhaney, Lincoln, and served by Miss Mardene Mori, Fremont. Presiding at the punch bowl was Miss Jean Sticka, Lincoln, and Miss Jill Merritt, Lincoln, poured the coffee.

Mrs. John Schneider, Arvada, Colo., was in charge of the guest book. In charge of the gifts was Mrs. Robert Lieswold, Lincoln, assisted by Mrs. Earl Tooker, Spencer, Mrs. Thomas Ehlers, Lincoln, and Glenda Parks, Lincoln.

The couple left on a trip to the Ozarks following the reception.

The bride is a graduate of the O'Neill Public High School and attended Wayne State Teachers College; she is presently employed by the Western Power and Gas Company in Lincoln. The groom is a graduate of the Sutton High School and of the Milford Vocational School, and is presently employed by Snyder Electric of Waverly.
