Chevy II Nova 400 6-Passenger Station Wagon

A Chevy II wagon looks this big when you load it up and this big when you gas it up

That, in the eyes of most Chevy II wagon owners, is just about the size of it. A king-size appetite for cargo. But a dainty one for gas. And this, we hardly need add, is just the kind of wagon we planned it to be. Taut and trim as it is on the outside, we went to great lengths to keep it BIG where a wagon should be BIG. The load platform extends a full nine feet from the back of the front seat to the tip of the lowered tailgate.

And for all the pepper we packed into that 6-cylinder engine (there's also a choice of an even thrifter 4 in most models), we were careful to keep it simple, easy to service—and a real stickler on economy. Feel in a traveling mood? Well—happy coincidence—this is the time of year your Chevrolet dealer feels in his most generous trading mood. Looks like it's high time you two got together.

Schrunk was master of ceremonies for the program which consisted of a reading by Sharon Reutzel and a reading by Laura Schrunk. Bobby Schrunk took part and Marvin Morabach conducted a pie naming contest. Mrs. Effie Jones and Mrs. Elizabeth Morabach were the top winners in the pie crust rolling contest, with Ray Concord the victor in the men's division. Lee Abiamson, Grand Island, dropped in as a surprise guest for the dinner. All in all a very fine evening was enjoyed, with mountains of fine food and just as much hospitality.

Tammy, the 3 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hoel Alle-mang, north of town, has recovered from effects of drinking insect spray last Sunday night. She was rushed to the Neigh hospital where she remained until Tuesday. Tammy was coming down with the measles at the time.

Mrs. Roy Stevens, Mrs. Benny Prater and Mrs. Keith Carnes attended funeral services for Mrs. Doyle Keller, 44, at Beemer last Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Keller is a daughter-in-law of Mrs. Mae Pruden, a former Clearwater resident, now of O'Neill. Mrs. Keller leaves 3 children. She died of leukemia. A former Clearwater resident, Donald Miller, is critically ill in the Veterans hospital in Grand Island. His aunt, Mrs. Maisie Phillips, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Jacobsen to Grand Island Monday to visit him.

Mrs. Floyd Cox, Los Angeles, Calif., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Lena Michael and other relatives. Mrs. Cox is the former Mrs. Jess Winn of Neigh.

Miss Margaret Pruess, 2nd grade teacher, took her students on a tour of places of interest in town Friday morning. They visited the bank, post office, fire station and had a look at Claire Utterback's rock collection. The local Church of Christ has undergone some extensive redecorating with new walls, ceiling, Sunday school rooms, new floor covering and in general, a complete and very attractive change.
