

Barbara Banks Weds Arthur G. Frisch in Methodist Ceremony

Barbara Banks and Arthur G. Frisch were united in marriage at the Methodist church Sunday at 8 p.m. The Rev. Glenn Kennicott officiated at the double ring ceremony, before 150 guests.

Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Sam Banks and Mrs. Ethel Frisch, all of O'Neill.

The bride given in marriage by her father, chose a waltz length gown of white nylon and acetate lace with nylon net. The scalloped skirt had an apron effect in the back revealing the ruffled net underskirt. The back was also accented with a V neck and bow. The waist was accented by a cummerbund. The bride's corsage was gladioli and lily of the valley. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace, a gift of the groom.

Cathy Banks, Casper, Wyo., was bridesmaid. She wore a coral pink brocade dress with white accessories. She carried a colonial bouquet of white and blue feathered carnations.

Larry Frisch, Lincoln, was his brother's best man. Ushers were James Banks and PFC Edward Gene Ennen, Arlington, Va.

Mrs. Grant Peacock sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer", accompanied by Mrs. Harold Seger, organist.

Following the ceremony a reception was held with 125 guests present.

The bride attended O'Neill Public school.

The groom attended Verdigre and O'Neill public school. He is employed at Galyen Motor Company as a mechanic.

After a short wedding trip they will be at home in Atkinson.

Laurene Kaup Weds Dick Bogue Saturday In Catholic Ceremony

Laurene Kaup, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Kaup, Stuart, was united in marriage to Dick Bogue, son of Mrs. Mabel Bogue and the late Cecil Bogue, Atkinson in a 9:30 a.m. double ring ceremony, Saturday. The Rev. A. J. Paschang officiated, at St. Boniface Catholic church, before an altar decorated with pink and white peonies.

Traditional wedding music was provided by the soloist James Hytrek and accompanied by Sister M. Vera O. S. F., at the organ.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of chantilly lace and silk organza. The fitted bodice featured a scalloped neckline of lace enhanced with seed pearls and sequins, and long sleeves tapered to points at the wrists. The full flowing skirt was fashioned with cascading tiers of chantilly lace and silk organza which extended into the full chapel sweep train.

The bride's two tier veil fell from a crown of pearls of clipped chantilly lace. She carried a bouquet of orchids and stephanotis.

Donna Humphry, Atkinson, was maid of honor. She wore a street length gown of pale blue with three quarter length sleeves and a rounded neckline. The skirt was bell-shaped and was accented by a large flower in the back.

She wore matching shoes, gloves and hat. She carried a bouquet of white gladiolus.

Mrs. M. O'Connor, Atkinson and Marjorie Kaup as bridesmaids wore identical dresses to the one worn by the maid of honor. They also carried bouquets of gladiolus.

LeJean Kaup and Jeanne Murphy as flower girls, appeared in white dresses of chantilly lace over silk organza. They wore white head bands and gloves.

Billy Kramer was the ringbearer.

Dale Doolittle, Amelia, was best man. Other attendants were Dale Bogue, Omaha and Roland Kaup, Ushers were Frank Murphy, Jerry Steinhosser, Delbert Rossman and Mike O'Connor.

A reception following the ceremony for 250 guests, was held in the Stuart auditorium.

Mrs. Walter Kaup baked and decorated the wedding cake which was served by Mrs. Edward Schneider. Mrs. Delbert Rossman registered the guests and the bride's attendants presided at the gift table. Coffee and punch was poured by Mrs. Clement Murphy and Mrs. Sy Kramer.

A supper was held at the home of the bride's parents for 40 relatives and friends.

The bride is a graduate of Stuart High School and the groom graduated from Atkinson High school. He is employed on a ranch south of Atkinson where they will live.
