

Country Club Planning Dad's Day Tournament

Golfers from northeast Nebraska will gather in O'Neill Saturday and Sunday for the 42nd annual Dad's Day Open to be held at the O'Neill Country Club.

Qualifying rounds must be turned in by 5 p.m. Saturday. First round and quarter finals will be matched play with consolation, semi-finals and finals, medal play. First round matches will begin at 7:15 a.m. Sunday.

Trophies or prizes will be awarded the winners, runner-up and consolation winners in each flight.

The ladies are not forgotten in the weekend's action either. Ladies' bridge will be held Saturday and Sunday afternoons in the club house beginning at 2 p.m. A dance is planned for Saturday night and a Calcutta and Dutch lunch will also be held Saturday evening. A ladies' luncheon will be held Sunday at 1 p.m.

Women golfers are also reminded of the annual Ladies' Open Tournament scheduled for Wednesday, June 26. Women wishing to play in the tourney must send in their reservations by June 24 to either Mary Reynolds or Evelyn Jaskowski. A luncheon will be held at 1 p.m. with bridge following at 2:30 p.m.

Eight Persons Join Methodist Church at Page

PAGE — Baptismal services were held during the Sunday worship hour of the Page Methodist church, with the Rev. Robert Linder officiating, for Valjean Parks, daughter of Earl Parks, Jolene Grass, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Grass and Linda Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Thompson. This was followed by eight young people from the freshman and sophomore classes of the Page high school being received into church membership. They included the above named and also Linda Alberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Alberts, James Crumly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyndley Crumly, Roberta Asher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Asher, Andrea Wettsifer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wettsifer and DeVon Kemper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kemper.

A covered dish dinner was held at the church following services with the following attending: Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Thompson and family, Mrs. Anna Thompson, Mrs. Arthur Grass and Jolene, Mr. and Mrs. Lyndley Crumly and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Asher and family, Mrs. Frieda Asher, Mr. and Mrs. George Wettsifer and family, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Heiss and family, The Rev. and Mrs. Linder and family, Mr. and Mrs. Al Chavet and Rex, Plainview, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Alberts and family and Vonda Asher, Atkinson, and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Clouse, O'Neill.

Board Approves Purchase of Lab Fixtures

Fixtures for both science laboratories of the new school were ordered at the regular meeting of the O'Neill board of education Monday night. Severson School Supply's bid of $13,826 was accepted for the fixtures.

In other business the board interviewed a teacher to replace James Luft and approved bills totaling $2,366.98.

Civil Defense Meeting Planned Here June 19

Holt County Civil Defense Director Lloyd Thurlow announced this week that a meeting will be conducted by officials at the National Guard Armory in O'Neill, Wednesday, June 19.

This meeting will be educational and instructive, with a period set aside for group discussion of local problems, and everyone is urged to attend. The meeting will be from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Rev. Cammack New Methodist Pastor Here

The Rev. Melvin Cammack of David City is the newly appointed minister for the Methodist church. He succeeds Rev. Glenn Kennicott.

Rev. Robert Embree, who is completing his term of six years as district superintendent is moving this week to Falls City where he will be minister.

The new district superintendent is the Rev. Herbert Jackman of Cozad. The district is comprised of 55 churches. A brother of Rev. Jackman, the Rev. Everett Jackman, served this area in previous years. He is now in the Omaha district.

The Rev. and Mrs. Glenn Kennicott left Wednesday for their new home in Tekamah. Rev. Kennicott will be the pastor of the churches in Tekamah and Decatur.

Atkinson Couple Feted on 60th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fullerton, Atkinson, who were married June 17, 1903, celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary Sunday by holding open house from 2 to 4 p.m. at their home.

A dinner was held for the family at noon with their seven children attending. They are Harold and George, Amelia, Mrs. Mary Alice Watt, Belgrade, Mont., Mrs. Anna Watt, Upton, Wyo., Mrs. Mildred Smith, Stuart, Oscar, Neigh and Margaret of Lander, Wyo. Their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Fullerton, celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary on the same day.

The Fullertons were married in Tingley, Ia., and moved to Nebraska in 1909. They lived on a farm northeast of Atkinson until they moved to town about 13 years ago. Mr. Fullerton has been Atkinson's police magistrate several years.

They have 29 grandchildren and 20 great grandchildren.

Rites Held for Frank Foreman At Emmet Church

Funeral services for Frank E. Foreman, 82, were held Wednesday at 10 a.m. at the Church of Epiphany, Emmet, with Father O'Donnell officiating. Burial was at Prospect Hill cemetery.

Frank Edward Foreman was born March 24, 1881 and died June 10 at Norfolk.

He married Mildred L. Bailey, June 12, 1923 at O'Neill and they became the parents of four children. Mrs. Foreman died December of 1957.

Mr. Foreman was a retired hardware merchant.

Survivors include daughters, Mrs. Norman Harrington and Jeanne Foreman, Omaha; sons, James, Winner, S. D., and Merle, Emmet; sisters, Mrs. Lena Tomjack and Mrs. Minnie Walters, Atkinson.

NEW LIONS CLUB OFFICERS will take over their duties in July. Shown here (left to right) are: Joe Stutz, first vice president; John Burbank, president; Kenny Curran, director; (back row)

Joe Ollendick, tall twister; Leonard Longstaff, third vice president; Gil Poese, second vice president and Frank McKenny, secretary-treasurer.

Stuart Couple Honored Sunday On Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. James Deming, Stuart, observed their golden wedding anniversary, Sunday, by holding open house for 130 relatives and friends in the basement of the Cleveland Presbyterian church.

The basement was decorated with flowers and gold covered hoops formed a double wedding ring with one of them framing the wedding picture of the honored couple.

Barbara Hall, Omaha, granddaughter of the couple, was in charge of the guest book. Hostesses were Mrs. Lou Prange, Mrs. Russell Hipke and Mrs. Merrill Smith. Presiding at the table were Mrs. Lottie Loquest, O'Neill; Mrs. Edna Loquest, Ewing; Mrs. Sarah Loquest, Stuart; Mrs. Lottie Keidel, Stuart; Mrs. Elmer McClurg, Atkinson and Mrs. Herbert Young, Stuart.

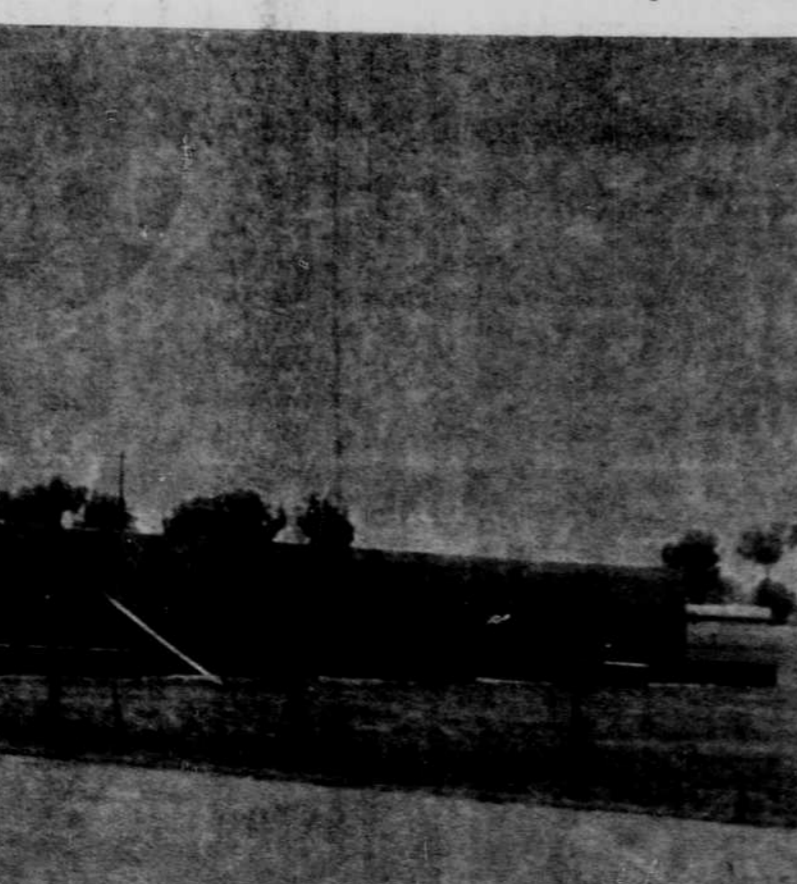

Della Loquest, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Loquest and James Deming, son of Mr. and Mrs. Syrenas Deming were married June 5, 1913 at O'Neill.

Mr. Deming is a rancher and they have lived on the home place all their married life.

They are both members of the Presbyterian church, he was township treasurer and a member of the school board. Mrs. Deming belongs to the Rebekah Lodge and the Cleveland Ladies Aid.

They are the parents of three children, Mrs. Linford Sweet, Stuart, Mrs. Maurice Hall, Omaha, and Robert, at home.

They have three grandchildren and one great grandchild.

GOING UP! — All walls are up and portions of the roof sections are in place on the new Meyers Midwest Furniture and Carpet building east of O'Neill on Highway 20. This view shows the front and north side of the structure. The opening in front will be filled with a 60-ft. window. Site of the new building is across from Seger Oil company and just north of Woody's cafe and Spitzberger Oil company. Meyers expect to occupy the building early this fall.

Parade Friday Night to Begin O'Neill's Rodeo Weekend

Chancery Office Lists Changes In O'Neill Area

Archdiocesan Chancery office announced the following appointments, to be effective today (Thursday).

Rev. Robert B. Duffy, assistant at St. Patrick's church, O'Neill, to assistant at St. Patrick's church, Omaha.

Rev. Anthony M. Milone, assistant at St. Mary's church, Bellevue, to assistant at St. Patrick's church, O'Neill.

Rev. Terrence Finney, newly ordained, to assistant at St. Patrick's church, O'Neill.

Rev. Richard J. Parr, pastor of St. Joseph's church, Atkinson, to pastor of St. Mary's church, Omaha.

Rev. Paul E. Peter, pastor of St. Michael's church, Coleridge, to pastor of St. Joseph church, Atkinson.

Rev. Donald J. Bartek, assistant at St. Joseph's church, Atkinson, to pastor of Holy Cross church, Bamberoff, with mission at Decatur.

Rev. Richard Arkfeld, assistant at St. Rose church, Omaha, to assistant at St. Joseph's church, Atkinson.

Rev. Jerome H. Dickes, pastor of Sts. Peter and Paul church, Butte, to pastor of St. James church, Omaha.

Rev. James Rief, assistant at Blessed Sacrament church, Omaha, to pastor of Sts. Peter and Paul church, Butte.

Rev. Ralph O'Donnell, pastor of Church of the Epiphany, Emmet, to pastor of St. Anthony's church, Cedar Rapids.

Rev. Robert A. Schmitz, assistant at St. Agnes church, Omaha, to pastor of Church of the Epiphany, Emmet.

Rev. Gerald Burbach, assistant at St. Boniface church, Elgin, to assistant at Holy Family church, Omaha, and Assistant Director of Social Action.

Rev. Ralph Lammers, newly ordained, to assistant at St. Boniface church, Elgin.

Explorers Hold Meeting To Elect Officers

Explorers Post 455 was formed Tuesday evening at a meeting held at the O'Neill Armory. Officers named were: Larry Lieb, president; Bill McIntosh, vice-president; Larry Krugman, secretary; Jim Hamrich, treasurer; John Miller, quartermaster; Joe McLeish Jr., and Stan Spangler cabinet representatives.

Other members are Terry Heese, Ken Lieb, Jerry Nickerson and Sandy Trant. The O'Neill unit of the Nebraska National Guard is the sponsor. Ken Husten is post committee chairman and guard committee men are Robert Young, Ron Knoll and Gail Theye. Larry Rice will serve as adviser and Ed Price is associate adviser.

Charter presentation ceremonies will be held before the general assembly of the guard unit on Monday evening, July 1.

A special flag raising ceremony is planned Friday, flag day, at the Armory.

Mary Fetrow Elected Fraternity President

Mary Fetrow, O'Neill, was elected vice president of a new honorary fraternity in education, Kappa Delta Pi established at Wayne State Teachers College, Saturday.

Also a charter member is Beverly Bartak, Ewing.

A fee of $7.50 plus one dollar for the examiner's expense will be charged.

No tests are given to five-year-old children to determine eligibility for entrance into the first grade.

Edward Gallagher Receives A.B. Degree

Edward E. Gallagher received his A. B. degree as an English major from Regis College, Denver, Colo. June 3. Before graduation he was initiated into Pi Delta Phi, national honorary French fraternity.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Gallagher, O'Neill. Those attending his graduation were his parents and sisters, Edith Gallagher, Omaha, and Mrs. Vance Park, Moundsville, W. Va.

Area Students Receive University Degrees

Among those from this area who received degrees at the University of Nebraska Commencement exercises Saturday were: Nyla J. Jeszkowiak, O'Neill, Bachelor of Science in Education and a Physical Education degree from Teacher's college; Charles Linford Sweet, Stuart, Bachelor of Science and Margaret F. Armstrong, Elgin, (with distinction) Bachelor of Music in Education.

Robertson Motor Cited by Ford For Auto Sales

Robertson Motor Company, Inc., O'Neill, will receive Ford Gold Car and Truck Leadership awards for outstanding new car and truck sales achievements and professional merchandising practices.

The Ford Gold Car Leadership Award program is in its second year and Robertson Motor Company has won an award each year. This is the first year of the Ford Truck Leadership Award program.

C. H. Arnold, Ford Division district manager, said the Gold Car and Truck award winners will be honored Wednesday, June 12, at a luncheon at Pengers Ye-Olde Tavern in Norfolk.

The award winners were selected on the basis of their 1962 sales records. To qualify, each winner outsold all other makes of automobiles and trucks in his trading area last year.

Farewell Party Tuesday Honors Father Duffy

Parishioners of St. Patrick's honored Rev. Robert Duffy, Tuesday evening at a farewell party.

The program consisted of musical numbers presented by the school children of St. Mary's followed by talks by Hilda Gallagher, president of the Altar Society; Carlyn Neiers, grand regent of the Catholic Daughters, William Miller, president of the Friends of St. Mary's and George Janousek, grand knight of the Knights of Columbus.

Msgr. Timothy O'Sullivan briefly touched on the six years of Father Duffy's service and Father Duffy completed the program by telling some of the highlights of that time.

Robert Shoemaker acted as master of ceremonies.

A spiritual bouquet and a gift were presented to Father.

Refreshments of cake and ice cream were served after the program. Out of town guests included Father Duffy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Duffy of Omaha.

Page Couple Plans Open House Sunday

PAGE — The children of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Trowbridge are honoring their parents, on their 40th anniversary. Open house will be held Sunday, June 16 at the Methodist church in Fellowship Hall from 3 to 4 p.m.

No gifts, please.

Law Officers Seek Escapees In North Holt

North Holt county was the scene of considerable excitement Sunday as law officers congregated there to conduct a search for four 16-year-old escapees from the boys training school at Mandan, N. D.

The search began when Leo Thompson, Lynch newspaperman saw someone breaking into the Mulhair garage, across the street from his home at about 1 a.m.

Thompson reportedly tried to stop them but the youths fled eastward in their stolen car.

The four were identified as Kenneth Knutson, Richard Marbler, Leo Gross and Murel Hirschhorn. Hirschhorn was arrested early Sunday near Bristol.

The other three continued on in their car until it ran out of gas near the Art O'Neill place north of O'Neill.

Sheriff's officers from Boyd, Holt, Brown, Rock and Keya Paha counties and troopers from the Nebraska Safety Patrol aided by an airplane piloted by Ron Shooka, Atkinson, then conducted a search along the Niobrara river.

O'Neill police officer Rob Prouty, who was helping in the search first spotted the trio sitting in the brush. The youths offered no resistance when Mr. Prouty took them into custody.

The four were turned over to South Dakota authorities.

Kathleen Johnson Receives Nurses Degree

Kathleen Walker Johnson, Omaha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Walker, Page, received a Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree, Sunday, at the commencement exercises held at the Omaha Civic auditorium for the University of Nebraska College of Medicine and the University of Nebraska School of Nursing.

FAREWELL PARTY — Shown here attending the farewell party held Tuesday for Rev. Robert Duffy are (left to right) Hilda Gallagher, Carlyn

Neiers, Father Duffy, Msgr. Timothy O'Sullivan, George Janousek, and Bill Miller. Bob Shoemaker served as master of ceremonies.