

Honorary Cowpunchers

HONORARY NEBRASKA COWPUNCHERS from Minnesota, Wyoming and Illinois were guests of the O'Neill Chamber of Commerce during the O'Neill Rodeo. The tourists, selected at random from cars passing through O'Neill, were offered free meals, lodging and free tickets to the rodeo, as well as being made honorary Cowpunchers. Accepting the Chamber's offer of hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. James Wanous, Owatonna, Minn., Mr. and Mrs. John Murphy and family, Casper, Wyo., and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Obrist, Elmhurst, Ill.

Atkinson News

Mrs. Doris Bogue, Mrs. Evelyn Jungman and Mrs. Erma Colfack left Sunday afternoon for Blair where they are attending summer session at Dana College. Mrs. Brice Brazier, Kent and Blain, spent a couple of days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kadia. Mrs. Brazier returned to her home in Lincoln on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Brazier left Lincoln Saturday for a two week business and pleasure trip. Brice will attend a four day schooling and conference meeting in Los Angeles, Calif., before embarking on a few days of vacation and travel. Their son, Blain, is in Atkinson with his grandparents and Kent will spend his time near Sparks, Neb., at the home of his great-uncle, Mr. and Mrs. William Cady. Mr. Brazier is employed by the Credit Union in Lincoln.

Denny Ziska accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ziska to Omaha on Friday of last week, where he will visit for a week. Mr. and Mrs. Ziska were enroute home from an extended vacation and honeymoon trip to Canada and the northwest. Mr. and Mrs. Eli McConnell, along with all the members of their family enjoyed a family picnic at the city park on Sunday. Visiting here from away are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomas and family of North Platte, and Mr. and Mrs. Dean McConnell and family of Salt Lake City. Mr. and Mrs. Dean McConnell and Chris and Mark came here from Kansas City where they spent a part of their vacation with her parents and family. Enroute home they will spend a few days in Denver, visiting with many old friends. Others of the McConnell family attending the picnic were Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer (Bud) McConnell and family and Mr. and Mrs. Richard McConnell and family, all of Atkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McClurg were Sunday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lofquest north of Stuart. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stuart of Cozad brought his mother, Mrs. Olga Stuart to Orchard Sunday, where she will spend some time visiting her daughter and son-in-law. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Parsons drove to Niobrara last Sunday where they were guests in the home of her brothers, William and Frank Pavelka. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rannels were Monday afternoon callers in the Wefso home in Atkinson. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McClurg and Mr. and Mrs. Glen McClurg spent Monday evening at the Calvin Allyn cabin north of Stuart where they picnicked and the men tried out some fishing. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lofquest and family arrived Sunday afternoon from Nevada, Mo., to spend a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lofquest and other relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Denton Colfack and Wanda of Niobrara were Saturday evening callers of Mr. and Mrs. William Wefso. They were Saturday overnight and Sunday guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Colfack and Dennis. Mr. and Mrs. Jarius McDowell and Mary came from Lincoln last Saturday to spend the weekend in the Lloyd McDowell home and visit Mrs. McDowell who has been a patient in the Atkinson hospital for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Dean McConnell and family of Salt Lake City were dinner guests last Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Richardson. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vlach, Bobby, Bill and Barry, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Kersten, Lori, Mark and Greg, all of Omaha, spent last weekend in Atkinson as guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Wedge. Mrs. Vlach and Mrs. Kersten are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Wedge. They also visited a sister, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bouska and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wedge while in Atkinson. On Sunday they were all dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Wedge. Mrs. Olga Stuart of Cozad and her daughter, Mrs. Kloppenborg, and son of Orchard visited briefly Tuesday morning with Mrs. William Wefso. They were calling on relatives and friends in the Bassett, Stuart, Atkinson and O'Neill areas all day Tuesday. Tuesday night Mrs. Stuart was an overnight guest in the home of Mr. Della Eby in O'Neill. Mrs. George Wedge, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wedge, Mrs. Donald Bouska and Mrs. Mabel Rothchild were among those attending the funeral of Cal Thompson in Naper Tuesday afternoon. Burial was in the Naper cemetery.

Chambers News

A bridal shower honoring Miss Judy Beed was held Wednesday evening in the parlors of the Methodist church with a large group of friends and relatives present. The program in charge of Mrs. Ralph Garwood and Mrs. Wayne Rowse featured a skit representing the Valley Center School with Mrs. K. N. Adams teacher. Mrs. Dale Adams as Judy Beed, Jeanette Klambes as Larry Swanson, and Danelia Whitaker as another student, Kay Tracy and Roberta Gartner portrayed the couple 50 years hence. Mrs. Bernard Hoffman sang "I Love You Truly" and "Silver Threads Among the Gold" with Mrs. Elwyn Robertson pianist. The gift table was decorated with turquoise streamers and a flower arrangement. Assisting the bride with her many gifts were her mother, Mrs. Raymond Beed, the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Leonard Swanson, Jeanette Klambes, Judy Garwood and Loretta Swanson. The latter was also in charge of the guest book. Lunch was served by friends of the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Jarman returned from a train vacation along the Pacific coast and the west and midwestern parts of Canada. Ervin Peltzer, West Point spent the past week with his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. Walter and his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Peltzer. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Schindler and family, Omaha, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stowell, O'Neill, Friedrich and boys left on Monday for Denver by auto, where she will visit a few days in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Seales before returning to their home in Lubbock, Tex., later in the week. Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Hickok left last Friday afternoon to visit their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hickok and family in Lexington. On Sunday they went to Ogallala to attend the Rural Mail Carriers Convention which lasted until Tuesday. Tuesday afternoon they drove to Scottsbluff where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hickok. They expect to return to Atkinson today. (Thursday) Mr. and Mrs. Thomas SchAAF and son, Tommy, spent last week end visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ziska and Denny. They also came to help his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred SchAAF celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary. They returned to Omaha on Sunday. Miss Donna McClurg spent last weekend in Atkinson visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McClurg. She returned to Lincoln on Sunday where she hopes to find summer employment.

Clarence Coulthard and daughter, Lettie Jean Coulthard, Elgin, were weekend guests of the Clair Coulthards. Mr. and Mrs. Milton Grimes and children, Lincoln, spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. J. E. Grimes and Mr. Grimes and other relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Grimes and Charlotte, Milford, came Saturday to attend the Swanson-Beed wedding and to visit his mother, Mrs. G. H. Grimes. They returned home Sunday p.m. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adams and family, Phoenix, Ariz., came Sunday for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. N. Adams and her mother, Mrs. Cecile Smith and other relatives and friends. Kathleen Prill, Oakland, accompanied her grandmother, Mrs. Lloyd Gled home the fore part of last week to spend a couple weeks visiting. Mrs. Gled had spent a couple days in the Prill home after a visit in Lincoln and attending the Methodist Conference. Mrs. Arthur Walters has enrolled at Wayne State Teachers College, Wayne, for the summer session. She spent the past weekend with home folks. Jimmie Cavanaugh, Superior, and his fiancée, Judy Morrow, Lincoln, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Cavanaugh and family. Saturday evening supper guests besides those mentioned were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cavanaugh, O'Neill. Roland Marshall and four children, Stuart, were Tuesday evening guests in the home of his aunt, Mrs. Andrew Gilbert. Mr. Marshall and his wife both teach in the school at Rowling, Wyo. Mrs. Marshall is attending college in South Dakota during the summer. Mrs. Steve Shavlik assisted at the Cleveland Bible camp north of Stuart Monday until Saturday of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Rathbun and two daughters, Rapid City, S. D., came Sunday p.m. and were over night guests of her grandmother, Mrs. John Wintermote. Supper guests on Sunday evening also included Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Wintermote. Guests of Mrs. Andrew Gilbert Saturday for dinner were her niece, Mrs. Leo Bartos, and daughter, Manchester, Wash. and her sister, Mrs. Phoebe Bartos, Butte. Vera Wilkinson received a broken leg Wednesday while he and several other men were replacing a short telephone pole with a taller one near the Walter Haake place south of town. He was taken to the Atkinson Memorial hospital. Glen Grimes, his mother, Mrs. O. E. Grimes and Mrs. J. E. Grimes drove to Grand Island Friday. Mrs. G. H. Grimes visited an eye specialist. They also met the bus and brought Steve Conley, Mountrouse, Colo., and Mrs. E. J. Salstrand, Turlock, Calif., back to Chambers with them. Mr. and Mrs. LaVern Hoerle, Dennis and Nancy arrived home Wednesday from a three week vacation in Idaho with her parents and other relatives at Meridan. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sasek, Omaha, were Sunday dinner guests of her mother, Hazel Blair. The Saseks had attended the alumni banquet at Spencer on Saturday evening. They returned to Omaha Sunday p.m. The Chambers Valley was visited by a welcome 1 1/2 to 2 inches of rain Saturday. Peggy Kerlie left Monday by bus for Sterling, Colo. to spend a week with her sister. From Sterling she plans to go to Scottsbluff for a week visit with friends before returning home. The Lutheran Ladies Aid met Thursday p.m. at the church with 17 members and five children present besides Pastor Braunerreuther and his mother, Clearwater. The meeting opened with prayer. The pastor led the group in a study of the "Holy Spirit". The group voted to send $20 to Lutheran World Service and $10 each to Missionaries Ken Bauer, and Ken Reiner. The meeting closed with prayer and lunch was served by Mrs. Don Dankert, Mrs. Leonard Peterson and Mrs. Richard McConnell. Darold Elkins, who is employed in Grand Island, spent the weekend with relatives and friends at Chambers. Mrs. Paul Harley and Mrs. Ray Hoffman are attending the summer session at Dana College, Blair. Mrs. John Honeywell and Mrs. Anna Albers spent a few days the first of the week in Columbus with the former's daughter, Mrs. Elwyn Robertsson and her daughter, Mrs. Maurice Rasmussen. It is reported that John Blair, O'Neill, received a broken leg in a car accident on Highway 281 north of O'Neill recently. Mr. Blair is a former Chambers resident where he is well known. Blair, and Mrs. Niel Morgan, Bell, Calif., were overnight guests Friday in the Edd Cody home, going on Saturday to Albion to visit Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fry and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Klambes and son. Mr. Morgan is a brother of Mrs. Fry and uncle of Mr. and Mrs. Edd Cody. Mr. and Mrs. Edd Cody and Dan went to Albion Sunday to attend a family get-together. Dan remained until Monday when Mrs. Cody returned for him. Mrs. Louise Nelson, Wednesday, played the piano at the Homolka-Warner wedding Amelia. She visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Cody while here. Mr. and Mrs. Dean Stevens and Terry were Sunday p.m. callers in the E. R. Carpenter home. Mrs. Rickard and Carol May left Monday to attend the Grand Island business college. Mrs. John Schipman entered St. Anthony's hospital, O'Neill, Sunday for medical care. Lela Ermer left Friday for her work in Washington, D. C. after spending about three weeks with her mother, Mrs. Ola Ermer, and visiting friends and relatives at Chambers. Mrs. Donald May and family drove to Kearney, Sunday, and

JUSTICE COURT—
6-14-63 — Edward Schurlock, Driver for Dahl Truck Lines, Sioux City, Ia., No. 1—overweight interior group 4 axles, No. 2—overgross weight — $120.00 — $4.00 — Officer, Kiziere.
6-17 — Jerry Tomjack, Ewing, Nebraska, Overgross weight — $50.00 and $4.00 — officer, Richardson.
6-18 — Wendell Hahn, Driver for National Foods, Norfolk, Overweight on capacity plate — $34.00 and $4.00 — Officer Richardson.

MARRIAGE LICENSES—
Richard L. Shelhamer, 24, O'Neill, and Margaret Anne Sullivan, 20, O'Neill, June 13.
Thomas J. Druke, 18, O'Neill, and Patricia E. McKenzie, 18, O'Neill, June 14.
William B. Miller, Atkinson, and Mary D. Little, Bassett, June 17.

William Edwards Named Principal At Ewing High
William Edwards, principal at Greenwood, has been hired by the board of education of the Ewing public school to teach science and serve as principal for the 1963-64 school term. He will replace former principal, George Keller, who has accepted a civil service science teaching position at the school at Ewing, S. D. Mr. Edwards taught science and has been elementary principal at the Greenwood school under the Ashland School System for the past year. Before coming to Greenwood, he was superintendent of the Wood Lake School system. He also taught one year at Mullen.

Rites Held for Mrs. Vanderburg At Clearwater
Funeral services for Mrs. Marie Vanderburg were held June 14 at the Snider chapel, Clearwater, with the Rev. Charles Sodersten, officiating. Burial was in the Clearwater cemetery. Marie Lubert, the daughter of August and Bertha Lubert, was born April 28, 1873 in Berlin, Germany and died June 11 in Memphis, Tenn. Pallbearers were Charles Curtright, Benny Prater, Keith Carnes, Lester Swan, Kenneth Ruggless and George Mummert. She is survived by brother, William Lubert, Clearwater, and sister, Lillian Bellomo, Los Angeles, Calif. Her husband, Dr. John Vanderburg, preceded her in death.

Court News
COUNTY COURT—
Luella Kay Schindler, Neligh, fishing without permit, fined $10 and $4 costs; officer—James J. Hurt, June 17.
Paul J. Petersen, Norfolk, night speeding, fined $10 and $4 costs; officer—E. M. Hastreiter, June 17.
L. E. Gustafson, Creighton, no certificate of necessity and convenience, fined $25 and $4 costs; officer—Arthur J. Rannels, June 17.
Bruce E. Welty, Kearney, fishing without permit, fined $10 and $4 costs; officer—James J. Hurt, June 18.

Jehovah's Witnesses To Meet at Bassett
A Bible lecture will be given Sunday, June 23, 2 p.m. at the Kingdom Hall, 2nd house south of Court House in Bassett. The lecture is entitled "Death a doorway to what? Is death a doorway to heaven or hell? What hope is there for the dead? These questions will be answered by W. Samuelson, a representative of the Watchtower Society. All persons of good will are welcome.

James V. Anderson Receives Degree
James V. Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Hayter, O'Neill, formerly of Ainsworth, received his Bachelor of Science Degree in pharmacy from South Dakota State College at Brookings, S. D. June 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson and son, Scott, are now living in Lexington where Mr. Anderson is employed at the Barmore Drug Store.

Atkinson Dentist Moves to Omaha
Dr. and Mrs. Frank J. Mancuso and family moved to Omaha Wednesday. Dr. Mancuso has practiced dentistry in Atkinson for many years, has not yet closed his practice in Atkinson, but will do so in the near future. The Mancuso home was purchased recently by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Anderson.

Too Late to Classify
CONTACT Harvey A. Tompkins, Inman, licensed real estate agent for information about the sale of the Methodist church property and other property in the Inman area. 911c

We need used tractors on these NEW FARMALLS
F 560 Diesel
F 560 Gas
F 460 Diesel
F 460 Gas
F 504 Gas
F 504 Diesel
B 414 Diesel
1 2404 reversed w/Kramer sweep
Terms to suit your pocketbook

USED EQUIPMENT
Case VAC tractor
Farmall M
Coop E2 w/live power-takeoff
Super A Farmall with mower
Farmall F 460 gas demonstrator
Save $400.00
Farmall F20
Farmall F30
New Farmhand pull type side delivery rake only $419.50
Ford truck reversed w/Farmhand mounted
KEATING IMPLEMENT CO.
Atkinson, Neb. 9-11c

DESIRE modern office—occupancy
August 1st, Box J-J, c/o The Frontier. 9-11-12c

A SINCERE THANK YOU to all my friends and relatives who sent me cards, letters and gifts while I was hospitalized. Special thanks to Dr. Carstensen and the hospital staff for their thoughtful care. All was much appreciated.
Mrs. Mildred Wright, Ewing, Neb.