

Margaret Sullivan, Richard Shelhamer Exchange Vows

St. Patrick's Catholic church was the setting for the June 15 wedding of Margaret Anne Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sullivan, O'Neill, and Richard Lee Shelhamer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy J. Shelhamer, O'Neill. The 10:30 double ring ceremony which was officiated by the Rev. Anthony Milone, white gladioli and white carnations decorated the altar. The nuptial music was furnished by Patricia McKenzie who sang "Ave Maria", "Panis Angelicus" and "O Mother Beloved". She was assisted by Helen Gokic at the organ. Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride appeared in a gown of silk mist organza and re-embroidered alenon lace over bouquet taffeta. The sculptured basque bodice enhanced with overlays of lace, medallions trimmed with shimmering sequins and seed pearls was fashioned with a portrait neckline and featured long sleeves that tapered to the traditional bridal points over the wrists. The voluminous skirt cascaded into an aisle wide train. Her double veil of imported French illusion fell into a circular sweep from a jewel trimmed rosette. She carried a cascade of cymbidiums and pompons. Serving as maid of honor was Ellen Lohaus, O'Neill. Bridesmaids were Marjorie Vih, O'Neill, JoAnn Schaaf, Omaha, and Linda Shelhamer, O'Neill. They wore identical gowns of aqua chiffon with rounded necklines and floor length skirts. They also wore picture hats of the same shade and carried cascades of white pompons. Serving the groom as best man was his brother, Paul Shelhamer. Groomsmen were Gary Holly, Bob McClellan and James Sullivan. The ushers were Virgil Holz and Jerry Schaaf. All were attired in black tuxedos and wore white carnation boutonnieres. Bruce Appleby and Robert Devoy were altar boys. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Sullivan wore an aqua silk sheath with white accessories and a white pompon corsage. Mrs. Shelhamer, mother of the groom, wore a turquoise silk sheath with white accessories and a white pompon corsage. Mr. Sullivan and Mr. Shelhamer wore dark suits with white carnation boutonnieres. Immediately following the ceremony a buffet and reception were held at the Town House for 175 relatives and friends. Mrs. Paul Shelhamer presided at the guest book. Mrs. Gerald Schmaderer, Mrs. Bob Eby, and Mrs. Tom Bigelow were in charge of the gift table. Judy Sullivan, Marlene Benda, Carol Holly and Mrs. Clarence Gokic jr. presided at the punch bowls. Mrs. Harry Sullivan, aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake. Pouring were Mrs. Adolf Latzel and Mrs. Ralph Adams. The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's High school and is presently employed with the ASCS. The groom, also a St. Mary's graduate, is in business with his father. For traveling the bride wore a turquoise silk print with white accessories and a cymbidium corsage. After a wedding trip through Colorado the couple will be at home in O'Neill.
