Rural Schools in Music Rehearsal

Holt county rural school pupils Tuesday participated in rehearsals of the harmony band and chorus practice. Sixteen schools and 145 children were practicing in harmony band work, directed by Mrs. Etha Walters of Amelia. Seven hundred and eighty-one children from 94 schools participated in the chorus. Merton V. Welch of Norfolk directed.

Social Meeting—The Catholic Daughters held a social meeting Tuesday evening at the Knights of Columbus hall. Mrs. John Vitt, sr., won high prize in pinocle and Mrs. Anthony Stanton, low. In pitch, Mrs. Wendell Bobl won high and Mrs. L. Schneider, low. Mrs. John Jensen won the door prize. Mrs. John Donohoe was chairman of the committee.

Fund Appeal in Second Week—The Salvation Army appeal for operating funds is now in its second week, reports Ted McElhane of O'Neill, drive chairman. The quota for O'Neill is $655. Many citizens have received letters with a return envelope, and because of the confidence the citizens have in the Salvation Army, many have responded.

Joins Loan Group at Norfolk—Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Austin left Wednesday for Norfolk where he has accepted a position with the Securities Acceptance Corp. of Norfolk. He was released from the service at Anniston, Ala., March 20. His wife is the former Mary Lois Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Kelly.

House Presented Traveling Case—Charles B. Houser, O'Neill high school band director, was presented a travelling case by members of the band Friday night at the close of the district music contest. Members of the high school faculty were entertained by Miss Viola Haynes.

Mrs. Reynoldson Hostess—Mrs. Leigh Reynoldson entertained her bridge club last Thursday night. Winners were the Mesdames Rex W. Wilson and John G. Stuitbergen. Mrs. Thomas Liddy was a guest.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Kruse and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Van Every went to Swea City, Ia., to spend the weekend. They were present for a family gathering of the Dahl family, honoring the 80th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Anna Dahl. Mrs. Dahl is the mother of Mrs. Kruse. She has visited frequently in O'Neill. The new housekeeper at St. Patrick's rectory, Mrs. S. W. Stevens, is a sister-in-law of Mrs. L. A. Becker, not her mother, as stated in last week's issue.

Isaacson . . . 65 years in Holt. Isaacson Burial Made at Chambers

CHAMBERS—Funeral services for David Isaacson, 85, a Holt county resident 65 years, were conducted Friday, April 13, from the Baptist church here. He endured the hardships of Nebraska pioneer life and was one of the few surviving Holt pioneers. Rev. Earl Schwenk officiated. Music was furnished by a quartet composed of Mrs. Letha Cooke, Mrs. Art Miller, Stanley Lambert and Roy Hoffman, who sang "Does Jesus Care?" "In the Haven of Rest" and "In the Sweet Bye and Bye," accompanied by Mrs. Ralph Garwood. Pallbearers were Thomas Newhouse, Ed Smith, Wood Jarman, Arnold Zuehlke, Omer McClellan and Seymour Harkins. Floral offerings were cared for by Grace Newhouse and Mildred Hoffman, Biglin's directed. Interment was in the Chambers cemetery. Survivors include two sons, four daughters, 14 grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, two sisters.

Valley Center Club at 25th Milestone
CHAMBERS—The 25th anniversary of Valley Center extension was observed at the home of Mrs. E. R. Carpenter on Friday, April 13. This is the home where the club was organized on April 1, 1931. Present for the anniversary observance was James W. Rooney of O'Neill, who was Holt county agricultural agent at that time. He assisted in getting the club started. Also present were three of the charter members still active in the club: Mrs. Lloyd Gled, Mrs. H. C. Walter and Mrs. Carpenter. The other charter member, Mrs. C. V. Robertson, was a patient in St. Anthony's hospital. Joining the club in its early years were Mrs. Clyde Kiltz, Mrs. Charles Grimes, Mrs. L. W. Taggart, Mrs. Charles Spann, Mrs. Edgar DeHart, Mrs. Robert Childers and Mrs. Charles Childers. The first four are still members. Mrs. Ed Harvey, present president, was in charge of the program, which consisted of group singing, readings, club history, a skit and talks by Mr. Rooney, Mrs. Kathryn Indra of O'Neill and Mrs. Glen White of Amelia. Table decorations consisted of a three-tier cake and tall tapers in crystal holders. Refreshments were tea sandwiches, mints, nuts, coffee and the birthday cake. Present enrollment of Valley Center club is 25. Members are: Mrs. Ed Harvey, president; Mrs. Herman Cook, vice-president; Mrs. Orville Svatos, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. Raymond Beed, Mrs. Clarence Young, Mrs. Sam Young, Mrs. Ernest Young, Mrs. Alfred Maas, Mrs. E. R. Carpenter, Mrs. H. C. Walter, Mrs. L. W. Taggart, Mrs. Lloyd Gled, Mrs. C. V. Robertson, Mrs. C. E. Tibbets, Mrs. George Thomson, Mrs. Charles Spann, Mrs. Charles Grimes, Mrs. Bruce Grimes, Mrs. G. H. Grimes, Mrs. Glen Grimes, Mrs. Clyde Kiltz, Mrs. George Fullerton and Mrs. Robert Beed.
