

Ewing Church School Plans Completed

EWING—Plans are well under way for the vacation church school to be held in the United Presbyterian and Methodist churches in Ewing May 21 - 25, inclusive.

The Church of Christ, United Presbyterian and Methodist churches are cooperating in this movement for the children and youth of the community. Miss Ina Bennett is superintendent. She has a corps of teachers, helpers and other workers to assist.

Text books have arrived, and most of the teachers and helpers have them and are preparing week of morning and afternoon classes. Three year olds in the nursery class may be dismissed at noon if their parents so desire. Older boys and girls will bring sack lunches and tables will be provided for the lunch hour. It is expected that more than one hundred, including workers, will be in attendance daily.
