Schneider-Mellor Nuptials at Nenzel
ATKINSON — Miss Patricia Elaine Schneider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schneider of Cody, became the bride of Benton Mellor, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mellor of Atkinson, on Saturday, May 13, at 10 a.m., at St. Mary's Catholic church at Nenzel. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Jacob Bauer in the presence of many relatives and close friends. The church altar was decorated with yellow mums and white asters.
The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a chapel-length gown of white nylon sheer over satin, with a floored nylon fitted bodice and long sleeves tapered at the wrist. The gown was accented by a double pleat of floored nylon, edged with lace. Her fingertip veil of tulle was crowned with a beaded tiara. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow roses.
Mrs. Charles Starr, sister of the bride, was matron-of-honor. She wore a disk-turquoise gown of net over tulle with yellow accessories and carried a colonial bouquet of yellow carnations.
The bridegroom, wearing a light blue-gray suit, was attended by his cousin, Charles Starr, who also wore a blue-gray suit. Both men wore white carnation boutonnieres.
The bride's mother appeared in a beige dress with white accessories and wore a corsage of yellow carnations. The mother of the bridegroom chose a dress of navy blue sheer with white accessories and wore a corsage of yellow carnations.
The maternal grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bohman, attended the ceremony. Mrs. Bohman wore a two-piece navy blue dress with white accessories and a yellow carnation corsage.
Bob Schneider, brother of the bride, and James Mellor, brother of the bridegroom, acted as ushers.
Two songs were sung by the Misses Kay and Dorothy Pours, Shirley Stases, Miss Helen Stoddard, cousin of the bridegroom, accompanied at the organ by Miss played the wedding march.
Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the school auditorium. Miss Lorella Wickman was in charge of the guest book. The St. Mary's Altar society had charge.
The bridal table was centered with a four-tier double-base wedding cake which was baked and decorated by the bride's mother and sister. Mrs. Howard Stephens, sister of the bridegroom, cut and served the cake.
Mrs. Neil Hipke, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Gene Maxes, friend and classmate of the bride, arranged the gift table.
The bride is a 1955 graduate of Omaha high, attended Chadron State Teachers college, and taught a rural school near
