

Parks - Blezek

PAGE — Wesleyan Methodist church at Page, decorated with baskets of white gladioli and candelabra filled with white candles, was the scene of the pretty wedding of Miss Ruth Parks and Glen Blezek on Sunday afternoon, May 27. Rev. Harry Johnson, pastor, officiated at the 2:30 o'clock double-ring ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Parks of Page. Mr. and Mrs. John Blezek, sr., of Plainview are the parents of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Paul Robinson, sister of the bride, was soloist and sang "Because," "O, Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by John Lamason, who also played the prelude and wedding march.

Miss Kay Kelly, cousin of the bride, was candlelighter.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She carried a white orchid on a white ribbon. She appeared in a white, ballerina-length gown of nylon tulle over taffeta. The bodice was fashioned with a yoke of illusion lace which formed the lower part of the bodice. Long white mitts accented the sleeveless gown. Her finger-tip veil of illusion net was held in place by a small crown of seed pearls and sequins.

Miss Sherry Stewart was bridesmaid. She wore a ballerina-length gown of blue taffeta with hat and mitts to match and carried a bouquet of white daisies.

John Blezek, jr., of Silver Creek, brother of the bridegroom, was bestman. Both men wore gray suits.

Paul Robinson, brother-in-law of the bride, and Harold Vossberg, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, ushered.

The mother of the bride appeared in a charcoal dress with white accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a red and white figured sheer with white accessories and both wore white carnation corsages.

The bride is a graduate of the Page high school and the Grand Island Business college. She has employment with the Watson Brothers trucking service of Omaha.

The bridegroom is a graduate of the Plainview high school and the Wayne State Teachers college. He has completed his third year as coach and high school teacher at Page.

The couple departed shortly after the reception for a wedding trip to Canada. Upon their return they expect to make their home in California where Mr. Blezek plans to teach.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Robinson and daughter, Pamela of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. James Bartak and family of Inman; Mr. and Mrs. John Blezek, sr., of Plainview; Mr. and Mrs. John Blezek, jr., of Silver Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Vossberg of Plainview; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reimer and daughter, Elaine, and Mr. and Mrs. Alva Parks, all of Ewing; Mr. and Mrs. William Kelly and daughters, Kay and Ann, and Mrs. James Kelly, all of Inman; Miss Clara Parks of Pierce; Mrs. Ellen Nickerson, Mrs. E. Lewis, Mrs. J. K. Braddock and Mrs. Richard Buxton, all of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Otto Jensen of Plainview; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Jensen of Norfolk; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Miller of Star; Mr. and Mrs. Dennis LaFave and Miss Wanda Stevens, all of Oneida, S.D.; and William Zempel of Lincoln.

Mrs. Otto Terrill and Mrs. Eld Stewart were in charge of the kitchen arrangements and Mrs. Richard Buxton, Mrs. Dennis LaFave, Mrs. Ellen Nickerson and Mrs. J. K. Braddock were waitresses.

Mrs. Edward J. Cuddy, nee Bonita Ann Muff... May bride in pretty church rite.—O'Neill Photo Co.

Bontia Ann Muff Becomes Bride

Before an altar banked with spray flowers Saturday, May 26, at 10 a.m., at St. Patrick's Catholic church, Miss Bonita Ann Muff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Muff, and Edward J. Cuddy were united in marriage. The double-ring nuptial mass was performed by Very-Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan.

Miss Deloris Jig of Norfolk, soloist, was accompanied at the organ by Miss Mary Lou Wilson.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, appeared in a floor-length gown of imported chintilly lace and tulle over satin. The lace fitted bodice, which featured a rounded neckline of scalloped hand-clipped lace and long sleeves with bridal points at the wrist, was attached to a voluminous skirt worn over hoops. It was styled with a wide lace panel in the front and alternate tiers of luxurious, scalloped hand-clipped lace and gossamer tulle completely encircled the sides and back.

Her fingertip veil of imported silk illusion was caught by a cap of lace and tulle trimmed with sequins and tiny seed pearls. She carried red roses encircled with white feathered carnations.

Miss Barbara Muff of Washington, D.C., a sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor. Her gown was of powder blue chiffon over net and taffeta. She carried a nosegay of white feathered carnations centered with a red rose and wore a white chignon cap.

The Misses Loretta and Catherine Cuddy, sisters of the bridegroom, and Miss Carolyn Muff, sister of the bride, were bridesmaids. Their gowns, caps and flowers were identical to those of the maid-of-honor.

The flower girls, little Miss Christi Janousek and little Miss Kathy Gildersleeve, wore white floor-length nylon dotted Swiss gowns with powder blue taffeta cummerbunds. Their miniature bouquets were red roses.

Jerry Cuddy of Ft. Riley, Kans., brother of the bridegroom, was bestman. The groomsmen were Jerry Wanser of Denver, Colo. Ushers included Eldon McKamy of Norfolk and Jim Morrison, the bridegroom, Miss Marilyn Beha of San Francisco, Calif., Miss Joan McKamy of Omaha, the Mesdames Lyle Benda, Lod Janousek, John Harrington, Henry Martin, L. A. Becker, Stanley Holly, John Donohoe and A. J. O'Donnell.

Mr. and Mrs. Cuddy are graduates of St. Mary's academy, class of 1953. Mrs. Cuddy taught school for three years at district 125.

Mr. Cuddy, who served at Ft. Lewis, Wash., until his discharge in February, 1956, is employed at Pinkerman's TV.

After a trip to South Dakota and Wyoming, the young couple will reside at 619 East Adams street.

Out-of-town guests were from Atkinson, Butte, Chambers, Clearwater, Ewing, Grand Island, Lincoln, Merriman, Norfolk, Omaha, San Francisco, Calif., Detroit, Mich., Washington, D.C., Sioux Falls, S.D., and Boston, Mass.

Courtney-Frahm
Nuptials Read in Lynch Church

PAGE — Miss Geraldine Courtney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Courtney of Lynch, became the bride of Sidney Frahm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Frahm of Page, Saturday, May 26, in a 6 o'clock ceremony performed in the Blessed Virgin Mary Catholic church at Lynch with Rev. Charles Kamber performing the ceremony.

Richard Cunningham of Page and Miss Winnie Vandersnick of Ewing were attendants.

The bride was gowned in a full-length lace and net dress. The bodice was fashioned of lace with a stand-up collar and the skirt was of tulle.

A cap edged with seed pearls caught and held the finger-tip veil and she carried a bouquet of yellow carnations.

Her bridesmaid appeared in a yellow lace and net gown with a yellow half-hat and her corsage was white carnations.

The mother of the bride wore an aqua dress with white accessories and the mother of the bridegroom chose a black and white dress with white accessories. Both mothers had red rose corsages and the men wore white carnation boutonnières.

The wedding ceremony was followed by a wedding supper served to the members of the immediate families. The reception dance was held that evening at the hall at Lynch.

The bride is a graduate of the Lynch high school and has been a teacher in the Dorsey area.

The bridegroom was graduated from the Page high school and served in the Korean theater of operations.

The couple will take a wedding trip through South Dakota and Wisconsin renewing acquaintanceships with service friends.

They will be at home at O'Neill where Mr. Frahm has work on the bulk tank wagon service owned by Kersenbrock & Wallace.
