

Mrs. Donlin . . . exhibits blackthorne stick from her native Ireland.-The Frontier Photo.

The late Mary Josephine Don-lin was born September 29, 1869.

and Mary Fitzgeraid Gregory.

New Band Director

Duane Miller (above) will be the new instrumental instructor at O'Neill high school for the coming year. He is a graduate of Wayne State Teachers college and has had seven years' experience. The first year was at Ponca, 1949-'50.

Between 1950 and 1955 he taught instrumental and vocal at Bassett. During the 1955-'56 term he taught instrumental at Tekamah.

Heart Attack Fatal to Mrs. Harry Snyder this conchildren

at Inman

inman — Funeral services Neill; sister—Mrs. Katie Flannicil for improvement at the Muwere conducted at 2 p.m., Saturgan of Dublin, Ireland; brother—nicipal airport—a project involvday, June 2, from the Methodist James Gregory, who also lives in ing tederal, state and city funds. Antelope county. church here for Mrs. Harry D Ireland. Snyder, 73, wife of a retired Holt county farmer. Mrs. Snyder died early Thursday, May 31, in St. Anthony's hospital.

Although she had been in fail-ing health for several years, her death was attributed to a severe heart attack suffered the day before her death.

Rev. Lisle E. Mewmaw officiated in the funeral rites conducted by Biglin's. Mr. and Mrs. Dale Stauffer of Page sang two of Mrs. Snyder's favorite hymns with piano accompaniment, by Mrs. Harvey Tompkins. Pallbearers were Donald Keyes, Marvin Rouse and Kenneth Smith, all of Inman; Merwyn French, jr., Robert Nissen and Norman Trowbridge, all of Page. Burial was in

The late Mrs. Snyder, whose maiden name was Lillie Leona Haffner, was born June 11, 1882, at Donnellson, Ia., daughter of John and Rosina Haffner. She came with her parents to Page in 1909 from Donnellson.

On October 18, 1911, she married Harry David Snyder. They became the parents of two children. They spent 35 years in the Page community on a farm.

Their first four years of married life were spent east of Page; later they moved three miles northwest of Page. In 1946 they left Holt county and moved to

In 1954 Mrs. Snyder and her husband moved to the Inman Mrs. Snyder was active here in Methodist church work and recently was installed spiritual life secretary of the WSCS. She also was a member of the Coffee club. The late Mrs. Snyder had been a member of the Presbyterian church at Donnellson and transferred her membership to the Methodist church at Page, where she served as superintendent of the primary department of the Sunday-school, served as pianist and music instructor, and was awarded a life membership in the Woman's Society of Christian

She was preceded in death by her parents and four brothers. Survivors include: Widower Harry; daughter-Mrs. Lewis F. Inman; (Rosara) Kopecky of Inman; son — Victor E. of San Diego, Calif; six grandchildren; brother -Al Haffner of Colorado.

Samms Infant

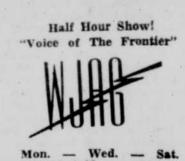

Dies in Kansas-CELIA-Graveside funeral services were held at 2 p.m., Tues-day, June 5, in Atlanta, Kans., for Brian Ray Samms, 10-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs.

E. W. Samms, 2111 North Waco, Wichita, Kans.

The child died at 3:37 a.m., Sunday, June 3, at Winfield,

Survivors include: Parents; sisters- Diane and Carla Lee, at home; maternal grandparents
—Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Hammerberg of Atkinson,

FREE FLAG CLEANING The Ideal Cleaners will clean U.S. flags free between June 7-

THE FRONTIER

TWELVE PAGES

This Issue

Holt Board

Petitioned

Neighborhood Hassle

Finally Tossed Out;

Grattan Needs Cash

After listening to 45 minutes of argument, the Holt county board of supervisors last Thursday dismissed a county road controversy involving C. L. ("Jack") Sisson and Albert Thoendel, both of Ewing. Occasionally the controversy became heated

The board, convinced the mat-ter should be settled at the neigh-borhood or township level, closed

he book and went on to three

The board's conference room was filled for the Sisson-Thoendel matter and the crowd overflowed into the corridor.

Sisson had filed a petition, pearing signatures of nine others, asking the board to officially close a little-used road which separates the Sisson-Thoendel property in countered with a petition bearing 30 names—including the name of Harry Keeler, who had asked list and be regarded as a Thoen-

Road petitions must be signed by 10 or more persons residing within five miles of the point of interest to qualify for a hearing. Legality of names of several lel fence on Sisson's property.

Sisson said the gates were his and the public was welcome to use his pasture, if necessary be kept open as a "buffer zone.

Thoendel wanted the road to

Joe Weibel, also of Deloit, headed a petition group asking the Antelope county road and a Holt road, both under county maintenance. Weibel told the board the sand dollars raising the standard become a part of the county sys-

Harold Burge of O'Neill and 28

other Grattan township landowners asked for the opening of a county road north from the Andy

Burge and a dozen of the sign-

The four - mile

Clark ranch.

be removed from the Sisson

Deloit vicinity. Thoendel became heated.

other petitions.

for Roads

North-Central Nebraska's BIGGEST Newspaper

Volume 76.—Number 6.

O'Neill, Holt County, Nebraska, Thursday, June 6, 1956.

Seven Cents.

Church Will Mrs. Timmerman Mark 50th Birthday

Chambers Lutherans To Dedicate Organ in Sunday Affair

CHAMBERS—The 50th anniverary of St. Paul's Lutheran church Missouri synod) will be celebrated Sunday, June 10. Rev. Harry C. Fricke of Wheaton, Ill., former pastor, will be the speaker for the Biglin's. be held with dedication of the new quist and Dr. L. A. Burgess, Funeral rites were conducted at eletronic organ. Rev. Henry Niero'clock Tuesday morning, June mann of Laurel will preach. for Mrs. Mary Donlin, 86, who The date will mark the died Friday night, June 1, in a rest home at Genoa.

The services were held at St. Patrick's Catholic church, burial was in Calvary cemetery with Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan officiating; Biglin's directing.

Pallbearers were Roman Bridge.

Pallbearers were Roman Ronde, Leo Moore, John Storjohann, Da-vid Moler, Richard Minton and 2 Street Employees Hired by Council in Ireland, the daughter of John The O'Neill city council Tuesday evening hired two street de-She lived in Pittsburgh, Pa., briefly before coming to Holt partment employees, discharged one, heard an appeal for airport improvement and heard a request Her husband, the late Stephen for restoration of stop signs. Donlin, died December 2, 1933. The employee whose services They farmed for many years in this community and adopted two children.

are to be terminated is L. O. ("Let") Johnson, foreman with the street department.

Marcellus Schaaf and Fred Mrs. Donlin made a voyage to Ireland about five years ago and spent several months there.

Marcellus Schaaf and Fred Hannik have been hired as street employees at the rate of $250 per employees at the rate of $250 per employees. month. Both have had experience

Survivors include: Son- James with heavy machinery. Donlin of O'Neill; daughter—Mrs. Airport Manager George Harry (Catherine) Sullivan of O'- Nachtman appealed to the coun-Airport Manager George The council agreed to hear state aeronautics officials at an adourned meeting on June 12. Very-Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan asked the council to restore stop signs at the corner of Fourth and Benton streets. No action was

The session lasted five hours.

Mrs. J. P. Brown to Head Concert

A meeting was held Sunday evening for directors and offi- Lohaus Family cers of the O'Neill Community Concert association. Frank E. Parkins was reelected president as was John Watson reelected was appointed Mrs. Merwyn French, jr., dinner tive, was present and a "hold missions in Korea. date" was placed on the famous Tucson, Ariz., boys' choir.

Mrs. Boyd Ressel and daughter and Mrs. Don Rossmeier and menced Friday on a new i-H children from Montana are vis- livestock building at the Holt

Expires in Hospital

O'Neill Woman, 84, Ill a Week

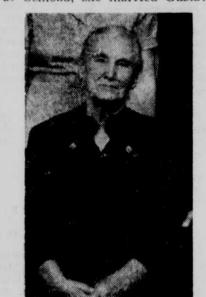

Mrs. G. F. Timmerman, 84 died at 2 p.m., Thursday, May 31, in St. Anthony's hospital. She

Funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m., Monday, June 4, from First Presbyterian church with Rev. J. Olen Kennell officiating.

Burial was in Prospect Hill cemetery under the direction of Ireland Native, Dies 10:30 a.m. worship service. Dinner will be served at noon and at 2:30 p.m., the festival service will william Babutzke, Clifford Runquist and Dr. L. A. Burgess.

The late Mrs. Timmerman was The date will mark the 25th ison county. On April 15, 1899, born February 10, 1872, in Mad-county in 1925. Timmerman.. came to Helt county in 1925 from

The family lived many years on two different farms immediately east of O'Neill.

The couple became the parents of two sons and four daughters. Survivors: Widower- Gustave Frederick Timmerman; sons Fred Timmerman of Star and William Timmerman of Royal; daughters—Mrs. Orval Vargason to Head Concert

Membership Drive of Bassett, Hattie Timmerman of Alliance, Mrs. Larry Smith of Rifle, Colo., and Mrs. John (Dorothy) Pribil of O'Neill.

Buys Gatz Interests

announce this week they have of rain early Monday Mrs. J. P. Brown was named purchased the Mr. and Mrs. C. the membership chairman for the J. Gatz interest in Lohaus Motor were received at Orchard, Bruns-1956 drive, Mrs. Melvin Ruzicka Co. Lohaus and Gatz have own- wick, Plainview and Osmond. headquarters ed and operated the Ford agency Norfolk received .06. chairman; Mrs. R. V. Kurtz and here in partnership for 17 years. chairmen; Mr. Watson, concert resigned his commission as an air inches. The storm was strictly lochairman, and John H. McCar- force captain, will be associated cal and set in about 2:15 a.m. ville, publicity chairman. Cam- with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. The heavy rain did not extend paign week was set for Septem- Lohaus, in the operation of the far north. ber 10-15. Mrs. Pauline Walston, firm. Baker, a jet pilot, flew Comumnity Concerts representa- more than one hundred combat

> Work Started on New 4-H Building-

CHAMBERS--Work was comcounty fairgrounds.

Thar They Go - Those Jets!

All necks craned skyward Sunday afternoon jets streaked overhead in formation. This interat Municipal airport as five air national guard esting photo reveals mixed reactions.—The Fron-

Crop-Making Rains Gladden Hearts

Crop-making showers, local in at . , , character but far reaching in effect, have gladdened the hearts of Nation's Best many farmers and ranchers during the past three days. Lolks in the immediate O'Neill vicinity are wearing broad smiles because of 1.96 inches of precippastures, lawns and gardens; has boomed small grain prospects, and has created a favorable situation for corn. Mother Nature's electrical disturbances plunged towns between O'Nelll and Ainsworth into darkness early Monday due to power

Wayne Rowse, who lives near Chambers, reported a half-inch rain early Monday, starting at 5:30 o'clock. The shower extended as far north as Dry creek. Intermittent rain fell at O'Neill Monday morning, totaling .22 of an inch.

Stanley Watson, south of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Lohaus Chambers, reported over an inch

Good showers early Monday

Early Tuesday O'Neill was vis-John L. Baker, who recently ited by heavy rain, totaling 1.34 the heaviest 24-hour count in a an inch of rain fell there during the early Tuesday morning hours.

Another fine shower started about 11:15 p.m., Tuesday and (Continued on page 6) Walter Wyant, 80,

Funeral services for Walter W. Wyant, 80, were conducted at 2 p.m., Tuesday, June 5, at Biglin's

Mr. Wyant died Friday, June 1, in a rest home at Genoa where he had been residing since September, 1955. He was stricken with a cerebral hemorrhage and died 30 minutes later.

The late Mr. Wyant was born October 30, 1875, at Eaglesville, Mo., a son of Newton and Mary Wyant. The family originally settled in Wheeler county and later moved to southern Holt county. He married Dorothea Eisle on April 8, 1896. They farmed about five years near Chambers and then moved to O'Neill where he operated a taxi service for several years. He operated the first Ford auto agency for a number of years and also was engaged in buying and selling livestock. In 1939 he was struck by a hitand-run motorist at Grant's Pass, Wyant was pushing a wheelbar-row loaded with chicken feed on street in that city. He never fully recovered from the accident.

Ore., and was seriously hurt. Mr.

He was preceded in death by Survivors include: Sons-Chares ("Chick") of Palisade, Minn., and Wilton; daughter-Mrs. Fern Blowers of Long Beach, Calif.;

Wetzler Funeral Today at Gregory

HERRICK— Funeral services for Rudolph Wetzler, 60, well-known retired farmer in the Her-Thoendel alleged the single rick, S.D., community, will be fence was on his property and today largely maintained by him, (Thursday) at the Assembly of wanted the board to keep open God church in Gregory, S.D. the road and wanted the board to keep open the road and wanted the board to keep open the road and wanted the board to keep open the road and wanted the board to keep open the road and wanted the board to keep open the road and wanted the board to keep open the road and wanted the board to keep open the road and wanted the board to keep open the road and wanted the board to keep open the road and wanted the board to keep open the road and wanted the board to keep open the road and wanted the board to keep open the road and wanted the board to keep open the road and wanted the board to keep open the road and wanted the board to keep open the road and wanted the board to keep open the road and wanted the board to keep open the road and wanted the board to direct Sisson to install a parallel wanted the board to direct Sisson to direct Sisson to direct Sisson to direct Sisson to direct Sis Mr. Wetzler was in good health until four years ago when he suf-fered a stroke. He never regain-ed his health. He died in a hosital Sunday, June 3. He was born January 9, 1896, Naper. On June 4, 1917, he

He spent most of his life in the Butte, Herrick and Gregory county to take over a Deloit town-The three-day RCA show will communities. He was active in ship two-mile stretch tying up an feature evening performances at Assembly of God church affairs

Survivors include: Widow ng at 2:30 o'clock. The rodeo Lydia; sons-Harold of Herrick township had spent three thouvill take place in the club's arena and Alfred in the navy; daugh-Carney park at the south edge ters-Mrs. Fred (Irma) Wells and of the road in order that it could the city. Elaborate lighting Miss Lorene, both of O'Neill, xtures have been installed, Mrs. Leona Faust of Lucas, S.D., tem. The board unanimously apbleachers and chutes have been Mrs. Laura Adenbach of Sidney, proved.

improved, and there is an abun-dance of parking space. Mont., Mrs. Esther Krueger of Blaine Garwood of Atkinson and other petitioners asked the of Herrick; nine grandchildren; board to subtract from the county sisters-Mrs. Ludwig Guthmiller system seven specific miles of of O'Neill, Mrs. Ed Rueb of Tyn- county highway in Wyoming dall, S.D., and Mrs. George township and add seven miles Stron of Herrick; brothers - elsewhere in that township. The Charles and William, both of request was granted. Herrick, and Edward of Dallas,

$20,000 Still Out in Distress Warrants-Holt County Sheriff Leo Tompack said Wednesday he and his stretch, paralleling U.S. highway and Wagner (S.D.) Saddle club deputy, James Mullen, have col- 281 five miles to the west, Other early Tuesday readings: will take part. First, second and lected about 47-thousand-dollars would link two county roads. The Madison, 1.50; Elgin, 1.40; Albion, third place prizes will be award- in delinquent personal taxes. 1.30; Neligh, .50; Norfolk, 1.30— ed parade winners. Tomiack estimated 20-thousand- sandhills. Tomjack estimated 20-thousand-

The distress warrants involve ers met Saturday evening with Gene Ramm of Stuart reported approved operator, will feature personal taxes delinquent for the Grattan township board. The 1955 and before.

board declared it lacked money to comply with the request at this time. Grattan currently levies four-tenths of a mill for road purposes - one of the lowest levies in the county. Burge, Clark and other interested parties said they would again take the matter up with the county board on June 29. Estimated cost of the grading, clay fill and graveling on the four-mile road is about fivethousand dollars. A petition headed by Cal Allyn of Stuart also was tabled until June 29 State Abandons a.m.,

Maintenance

state department of roads and irrigation will abandon maintenance of the following roads in county, effective at 12:01 July 1:

Naper south — Beginning on the Holt-Boyd line on the north of the northwest quarter, thence south a distance of 1.123

Swart north — Beginning on U.S. highway 20, thence north through Stuart, thence east approximately 1.75 miles, thence north approximately 8 miles.
O'Neill-Page — Beginning on highway 20 east of O'Neill, thence east approximately 12 miles. thence south approximately 4.75 miles to the south village limits of Page.

Lynch-Redbird— Beginning on the Boyd-Holt county line in the southwest quarter of section 1-32-10, thence south through Red-bird, a distance of 11.115 miles. Amelia west - Beginning on highway 11, thence east approximately 2.6 miles to Amelia. Ewing south— Beginning near the southwest corner of section 2-25-9, thence north a distance of approximately 6.329 miles to (Continued on page 6)

12 Receive First Holy Communion

Rev. Peter F. Burke, pastor of St. Peter's Cath- Lofquest, Dennis Vandersnick, John Dougherty, olic church at Ewing, and Sister M. Marina of St. Terry Schmidt, Patrick Dougherty and Vincent Mary's academy pose with 12 children who made Vandersnick. Absent because of illness was Dentheir first holy communion Sunday, June 3. In nis Finley. Seventy-two children were enrolled the foreground are Cathy Lofquest, Jeanne Finley in the vacation school at St. Peter's. It was Sisto Compete Here itation. The rain has brightened 3-Day Rodeo Opens with Parade

June 8, will launch O'Neill's Lydia Layh of Gregory A parade at 2:30 p.m., Friday third annual rodeo sponsored by e O'Neill Saddle club.

o'clock on Friday and Saturday until his illness. nd a matinee on Sunday, start-

Friday's parade will include floats sponsored by business firms and organizations. The parade will form on Seventh street, east of the American Legion auditorium, at 2 o'clock. Parade route will be westward on Douglas street and return.

The Municipal band, O'Neill Saddle club, Niobrara Saddle club The rodeo, produced by Walter dollars still outstanding. Plugge, Nebraska's only RCA-

(Continued on page 6)

Tingle Suceeds Panowicz

Robert ("Bob") Tingle (right) succeeds Edward Panowicz as manager of the Midwest Furniture & Appliance. Mr. Panowicz, his wife and their three children left O'Neill this week and will make their home in Portland, Ore., where Mr. Panowicz expects to establish a curio shop featuring rocks and precious stones. He came here eight years ago-shortly after the store was established. Mr. Tingle, who originated at Winner, S.D., served in the navy during World War II. He has had nine years of furniture experi-12 to encourage proper displaying of flags on flag day—Thursday, June 14. (Advertisement on page 8.)

The page 14. (Advertisement on page 8.)

The page 15. (Communion group. St. brother—Clarence M. of Chambers and Charlene Miller; second row—Terry of Omaha.

The page 16. (Call.) brother—Clarence M. of Chambers and comes to O'Neill from Norfolk, where he was associated brother—Clarence M. of Chambers and Charlene Miller; second row—Terry of Omaha.