

Shaw-Kamphaus Nuptials Here

Miss Leila Mae Shaw, daughter of Mrs. Dorothea Shaw of O'Neill, and Joseph Kamphaus, son of Mrs. Julia Anna Kamphaus of Amelia, were united in marriage at St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill in a 9 o'clock ceremony Monday, June 4. Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan, church pastor, officiated.

Miss Kay Martin was soloist, accompanied by Mary Lou Wilson at the organ.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of net over satin and carried a bouquet of red roses.

Mrs. Stanley Peters, sister of the bride, was matron-of-honor. She wore a blue gown and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Judy Marie and Mary Sue Peters were flower girls.

John Kamphaus, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and Paul Kamphaus was ringbearer.

Following the ceremony, a reception was given by the bride's mother for 125 guests.

Mrs. Duane Summers had charge of the guest book and Mrs. Merlyn Shaw, the gifts.

The cake was baked by Mrs. Byron Grenier and cut by the bride's great-aunt, Mrs. D. H. Clauson.

Mrs. Kamphaus has been employed by the Western Auto store since her graduation from the O'Neill public school in 1955.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will reside on a ranch south of Amelia.

One of the Famous Nebraska Sandhills Ranches. It has been under the same ownership for nearly 50 years. Located 20 miles Northeast of Atkinson, Nebr., in Holt County.

THE RANCH — 3124 acres, of which roughly 600 acres are excellent producing hay meadows, around 2100 acres of summer pastures, 60 acres of alfalfa, and 30 acres now in rye. Around 320 acres of close-up pastures used for winter range and adjacent to wintering quarters. Spring-fed live streams across the ranch furnish an abundance of crystal clear water. Winter quarters blessed by an abundance of live water, acres and acres of trees and topographical shelter are as near ideal as "Old Mother Nature" ever provided. It's a good "using ranch" from end to end. Never overstocked — never abused — it's in 100% good physical condition. Buildings, fences and improvements are substantial and in excellent repair. The house, a comfortable, spacious home, modern in every way except heat. Barns, sheds, work shop and other utility buildings of sound construction and in best repair. Served by REA, daily mail delivery, real close to school; an excellent all-weather road to Atkinson. It's a ranch that any experienced cattleman would covet, but seldom has an opportunity to buy, particularly without reserve at public auction.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE—A nominal cash down payment will be required day of sale; final settlement and possession on March 1, 1957. Will carry back up to 40% of sale price at 4 1/2% annual interest. Title conveyed by warranty deed, supported by abstracts.
