Ballantyne and daughter, Faye Irene, returned to their home at Page on Wednesday from Lamoni, Ia., where they attended Graceland college the past year.

Tuch-Kalkowski Marriage Lines Read at Lynch

LYNCH—At a pretty ceremony at Assumption BVM Catholic church on Monday, June 4, Miss Orpha Tuch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Tuch of Verdel, became the bride of August Kalkowski, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Kalkowski of Lynch. Rev. Charles Kamber officiated in a setting of peonies and yellow roses.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in clipped rosepoint lace and tulle over satin, with a fitted bodice, "V" neckline and a bouffant, floor-length hooped skirt of lace flounced with tulle. Her illusion veil fell from a lace cap trimmed with rhinestones and she carried a crescent arrangement of American beauty roses.

Delores Kalkowski, sister of the bridegroom, was the maid-of-honor and Ila Rae Tuch, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. They were gowned in aqua and yellow waltz-length dresses of satin and tulle, respectively, with rhinestone and net crowns. They carried aqua and yellow carnation corsages.

Gordon Peters, cousin of the bride, was ringbearer and Joan Birmeier was flower girl. Both were dressed in white. Leo Kalkowski, brother of the bridegroom, was bestman and Larry Kalkowski, cousin of the bridegroom, was groomsman. All wore light suits and carnation boutonnières. Iva Thompson and Leota Birmeier were ushers. Mrs. Kalkowski wore blue sheer and Mrs. Tuch appeared in rose lace. Both wore white carnation corsages.

The wedding reception was held at the American Legion hall for one hundred guests. Mrs. Dale Barta of Verdigré and Mrs. Junior Wilson of Verdel displayed the gifts. Mrs. Cy Burbach of Wynot cut the cake and Mrs. Ray Peters of Niobrara poured. After a trip to the Black Hills the couple will reside on his father's farm near Lynch.
