Miss Crabb Weds in Church Rite

Miss Donna Crabb, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Crabb of O'Neill, became the bride of James R. Adamson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adamson of Albion, Sunday, June 10, at 2:30 p.m., at the First Methodist church of O'Neill. Rev. Glenn Kennicott officiated at the double-ring ceremony. The altar was decorated with pink and white gladioli and white candles in candelabras.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of chantilly lace and tulle. The bodice featured long tapered sleeves and a "V" neckline, outlined with scallops of lace. The bouffant skirt of tulle over satin and net was trimmed with appliques of lace. Her tiered illusion veil fell from a half-hat of tulle studded with sequins and pearls and she carried a bouquet of white daisies and feathered carnations.

Mrs. Owen Davis of Colorado Springs, Colo., niece of the bride, was matron-of-honor and Miss Jean Tingle of Butte was bridesmaid. Their identically styled gowns were of rose and aqua crystal over taffeta. They wore picture hats of tulle and crystals and carried colonial bouquets of white daisies and pink carnations.

Miss Jean Crabb, niece of the bride, groomed in a pink frock with matching shoes. She carried the candles. Mrs. Reed Herley played the traditional wedding music and Kermit Smith, jr., of O'Neill sang "O, Perfect Love," "Wedding Prayer" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Paul Adamson of Albion was bestman for his brother and Robert Davis of Wayne was groomsmen and ushered, along with Neil Edmunds of St. Edward. The men of the wedding party wore dark trousers and white dinner jackets with carnation boutonnieres.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Crabb wore a gown of light blue lace with white accessories and a white carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother chose a gown of light blue silk with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

A reception was given in the church parlors after the ceremony. Mrs. Robert Davis of Wayne, Miss Doris Foster of Wayne and Miss Hazel Marie Johnson of Walnut had charge of the gift table. Miss Carolyn Butler of Ainsworth had charge of the bride's bouquet.

Mrs. Austa Crabb and Mrs. D. C. Miller poured and Miss Rose Fujan of Denver, Colo., cut the wedding cake. Assisting with serving were members of the Deans society and the Misses Sylvia Harder, Patricia DeBolt and Carolyn Hiatt.

Among the out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. William A. Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Don Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar J. Wise and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Beckwith, all of Albion; Mr. and Mrs. William Renken of Loretto; Miss Rose Fujan of Denver, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. Delmar L. Smith of Hartington; Mr. and Mrs. Vance Butler and Miss Carolyn Butler, all of Ainsworth; Kermit Smith, jr., of Laurel; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Crabb of Logan, Ia.; Mrs. Ethel Crabb, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Duncanson and family, all of Wagner, S.D.; Vene Eitemiller, Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Eitemiller and boys, all of Armour, S.D.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Eitemiller of Chadron; Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Angerth, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Hansen and Miss Ardis Hansen, all of Council Bluffs, Ia.; William J. Taylor of Mapleton, Ia.; Paul A. Heisler of Bancroft; Miss Jean Tingle of Butte; Mrs. Owen Davis of Colorado Springs, Colo.; Neil Edmunds of St. Edward; Myrtle O. Nelson, Doris D. East and Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Davis, all of Wayne.

The bride was graduated from Wayne State Teachers college and has been teaching in Lyons the past year. The bridegroom was graduated from Wayne State Teachers college after having spent four years in the air force. After a wedding trip through the Eastern states, the couple will reside in Wayne where both will teach in the high school.

Loraine Mashino Weds Oliver Nelson

SPENCER—Miss Loraine Mashino, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Mashino of Lynch, became the bride of Oliver Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nelson, at an evening candlelight wedding rite on Thursday, June 7, at 8 o'clock, in Immanuel Lutheran church of Spencer.

Rev. D. E. Sallach of Fairfax, S.D., performed the double-ring ceremony.

Bruno B. Boettcher sang "Wedding Prayer" and "O, Perfect Love," with Mrs. Boettcher playing the organ accompaniment.

Baskets of mock orange blossoms and lavender lilies and candelabras with white candles flanked the altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina-length gown of white. The bouffant skirt of net ruffles over satin was topped with a lace bodice with a Peter Pan collar and long sleeves tapering to bridal points at the wrist. Her fingertip veil fell from a cap of net trimmed with satin and pearls. Her only jewelry was a gold necklace and cross, a gift from the bridegroom. Her bouquet was of yellow carnations.

The matron-of-honor, Mrs. Wallace Derickson, sister of the bride, wore a ballerina-length sleeveless gown of green net over satin with a net stole and matching head piece. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Barbara Joe Black, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Black of Spencer, was flower girl. She wore a ballerina-length dress of yellow ruffled organza with a bandeau to match and carried a basket of yellow roses.

The ringbearer, Larry Scheinst, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scheinst, wore a black coat and white trousers.

The bridegroom and his brother, Clifford, who was bestman, wore blue suits with white carnation boutonnieres.

Candlelighters were Keith Mulford and Merle Janssen. Ushers were Cecil Mashino of Spencer and Kenneth Nelson.

The bride's mother chose a gown of green and brown nylon and the bridegroom's mother wore a powder blue rayon linen dress. Each wore a white carnation corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors. The four-tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom, was baked and decorated in the bride's colors of white, yellow and green, by Mrs. Wallace Derickson and Mrs. Art Derickson.

Relatives attending came from Indiana, South Dakota and points in Nebraska.
