Lennox Comfort Coach to Visit O'Neill—
Scheduled for a visit to O'Neill on Thursday, June 28, is the Lennox Comfort-Coach. It is a large, traveling educational and display unit that is touring the midwestern states.

By comparison, the coach is the size of a huge passenger bus but is designed especially for this unusual display. It is fitted with loud speakers and a large display area. Featured is a talking robot, Lennie Lennox. Its purpose is to introduce and explain new methods of heating and air conditioning to the public.

The visit of the Lennox Comfort-Coach has been arranged by Jack Davidson of James Davidson & Sons, local Lennox dealer. Visitors to the coach are being offered a chance at valuable prizes. No purchase is necessary. An adult need only register to be eligible to win. A "comfort-clinic" will also be held for those who wish answers to their heating and air conditioning problems. The coach will be located at the stop light corner, just east of the First National bank.
