

Ewing Bride-Elect Feted in Shower

EWING — A miscellaneous shower was held at the James Tinsley home Tuesday evening, June 19, honoring Miss Joan Thoenel, who became the bride of Roy Stamp Saturday.

Blue and white, the chosen colors of the bride-elect, were carried out in the decorations. The gift table featured a large umbrella with blue and white streamers. Blue and white carnations centered the refreshment table. Contest games with the winners keeping the prizes, provided entertainment, in charge of Mrs. Lyle Mittels. A timer set to go off at various intervals gave the signal for the honored guest to open a gift package. Miss Margery Stamp had charge of the gift book and the Misses Winnie Vandersnick and Judy Stamp and Mrs. Nick Hobbs assisted with the gifts.

Each of the 30 friends and relatives in attendance brought Miss Thoenel a favorite recipe and an unlabeled can of food, which were presented in a basket. Each guest was also given a card on which to write what they thought the bride-elect would be doing 10 years hence.

A lunch was served by the hostesses, Mesdames James Tinsley, John Turay, Victor Bollwitt, Victor Vandersnick and Mitties.

Mrs. Thomas C. Hartly, nee Carol Vander Kelen... to reside at O'Neill.

Vander Kelen-Harty Nuptials in Church Rite at Green Bay

The Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic church of Green Bay, Wis., was the scene Saturday, June 23, of the 9 a.m., wedding of Miss Carol Vander Kelen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin A. Vander Kelen of Green Bay, and Thomas C. Hartly, son of Mrs. Patrick B. Hartly of O'Neill and the late Mr. Hartly.

Rev. Peter J. Skell officiated at the double-ring ceremony and nuptial high mass.

Robert Bourguignon of Marinette, Wis., sang "Ave Maria," "Panis Angelicus" and "On This Day," with organ accompaniment by Sister Mary Felicia.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a gown of white silk shantung. The bodice was fashioned with a scoop long tapered sleeves. The full, ballerina-length skirt fell from box pleats at the waist. Her silk illusion veil, held by a half-hat of silk with lace appliques, had been designed by the bride. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom. A fuchsia-throated white orchid, complemented with white tulle and lilies-of-the-valley, formed the bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Millard Vander Kelen, sister-in-law of the bride, served as matron-of-honor with Miss Betty Peters and Miss Theresa Salmon as bridesmaids. They wore gowns of white embroidered organza over ice blue taffeta. The sleeveless bodices were fashioned with scoop necklines. Blue satin piping detailed the bodices, ending in bows at the hipline. The skirts were ballerina-length. Short white gloves were worn by the girls and their costumes were completed by blue satin daisy hats with circle veils, which had been designed by the bride. They carried nosegays of deep garnet roses, white tulle and matching pink streamers.

The bridegroom was attended by his cousin, John Hartly of Evanston, Ill., as bestman, and by Millard Vander Kelen, the bride's brother, Edward Campbell and Donald Adrians, all of Green Bay.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Vander Kelen chose a blue lace dress with pink accessories. The bridegroom's mother appeared in a mauve lace dress with matching accessories. Each wore a white orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents.

The VFW club was the setting for a reception at 2 p.m. for three hundred guests. Assisting at the reception were the Misses Helen Smits, Nellie Hall, Pat Ekkes, Colleen and Kathleen Moore, Frances, Kathleen and Mary Elizabeth Cronin, Mrs. Inez Jones and Mrs. Francis Fruzen.

A buffet supper was also served at 4 p.m.

For her going-away costume, the bride chose a powder blue embroidered sheath dress with a matching coat, white accessories and a white orchid corsage.

After a wedding trip through Western states and California, Mr. and Mrs. Hartly will reside temporarily in O'Neill.

The bride was graduated from East high school, Green Bay, and was formerly employed by Wisconsin Public Service Corp.

Mr. Hartly, who was recently released from four-years' service in the air force, is a graduate of St. Mary's academy and Creighton university, Omaha.

Out-of-state guests at the wedding included: Mrs. Patrick B. Hartly, J. D. Cronin, Mrs. W. H. Hartly and Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Cronin, all of O'Neill; Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Cronin, Frances, Kathleen and Mary Elizabeth, all of Grand Island; Miss Geraldine Cronin of Los Angeles, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. John Hartly and Michael of Evanston, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Vander Kelen of Grand Rapids, Mich.

NOTICE TO HOG RAISERS

As a suggestion to the transportation of Hogs to the BUTTE LIVESTOCK MARKET during this severe heat—All truckers would much rather haul in the evening or early mornings. They all have insurance to this Auction and we would be happy to handle the book work for this if only they would have tickets filled at time of loading. The insurance rate is very reasonable, but must be kept up and in order, so the company can check with our books. Speak with your trucker about this—one hog (dead) will pay several years' trucking insurance, so don't take this chance.

We can not buy insurance to cover the death of livestock from heat while penned up in no moving pens, but as the insurance of in transit means that livestock is insured until it reaches or passes over the scale to a new owner.

We will be very happy to cool all hogs as good and as fast as we possibly can in order to get them back on their feet.

Yours for the best of service,

Butte Livestock Market

THE BALER WITH profit BUILT IN!

NEW Ford 250 PTO HAY BALER

The new Ford 250 PTO Hay Baler is profitable to own because it pays for itself on fewer acres. Since it holds baling costs to a minimum, profits stay up. But that's not all.

By baling hay quickly, at the peak of its richness, more feeding value is locked into each bale. And by handling hay gently, more of the nutritious leaves are saved. With less waste, each acre of your hay produces more meat, milk or wool.

Engine Driven Model also Available

All these profit-building advantages are yours with the new twin-tie Ford 250 Hay Balers. Come in and see them.

Low Cost
—PAYS FOR ITSELF ON FEWER ACRES

- Lites hay only 34 bushes—saves horses
- Handing plugs—faster baling
- Two-cutting wrap task—no down time
- Simple design—fewer parts
- Standard—smooth running—light pulling
