Mr. and Mrs. Roy G. Stamp exchange vows in Ewing church.—Westland Studio (Neligh).

Flower - Banked Altar Setting for Nuptial Rites

EWING—Before an altar banked with garden flowers and ferns Miss Joann Thoendel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thoendel of Ewing, became the bride of Roy G. Stamp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Stamp of Ewing, at a 9:30 a.m., double-ring ceremony on Saturday, June 23, in the St. Peter de Alcantara Catholic church here. Rev. Peter Burke officiated.

A white carpet extended from the church entry to the altar rail. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of hand clipped chantilly lace and nylon tulle over duchess satin. The very fitted lace bodice buttoned up the back with self-covered buttons and was styled with a scalloped neckline and short sleeves. Lace gauntlets were worn, crushed to a point at the wrists. The court nylon tulle skirt, worn over hoop petticoats, repeated the lace of the bodice in scroll pattern applied in an all-over scatter design. Her French illusion fingertip veil was attached to a cap of lace trimmed with sequins and pearls. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom, and carried out the traditional "something borrowed and something blue."

She carried a cascade colonial bouquet of stephanotis with a removable white orchid corsage. White satin leaves and streamers accented the flowers.

Miss Winifred Vandersnick of Ewing was maid-of-honor. She appeared in a blue crystaletta gown fashioned with a cowl neckline, long torso, and floor-length skirt over hooped petticoats. She wore matching gauntlets and a jeweled white crown with a short veil and carried a bouquet of white Marguerite daisies accented with satin leaves, and streamers.

The bridesmaids were Miss Marjorie Stamp and Mrs. Mick Hobbs, both of Ewing. Their gowns were identical to that of the maid-of-honor and they wore jeweled crowns with short veils. The girls wore white and gold earrings, gifts from the bride.

Miss Shirley Larson, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a white satin floor-length gown with a net overskirt, matching gauntlets and headpiece. She carried a basket of white Marguerite daisies and ferns.

James Thoendel, brother of the bride, served as bestman. Jack Rosno, LaVern Stamp and Donald Spahn, all of Ewing, and Carroll Donohoe of Fremont were ushers.

Dennis Thoendel, brother of the bride, was ringbearer and carried the rings on a white satin heart-shaped pillow.

Ronald Thoendel, brother of the bride, and William Bauer served at the mass.

The bridegroom and his attendants wore white dinner jackets and black trousers.

Following the ceremony the bride placed a bouquet on the altar of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

The mother of the bride appeared in a white and black nylon velvety dress. The bridegroom's mother wore a gray and white silk print. Their corsages were of white carnations.

Following the ceremony, a dinner and reception were given by the bride's parents at Ft. Dominic's hall for 160 guests.

Miss Betty Mannlein had charge of the guest book. Miss Judy Stamp and Miss Eleanor Mannlein had charge of the gifts.

Miss Marella Koenig poured. Mrs. J. H. Donoghue cut the four-tier cake which was baked and decorated by Mrs. Carl Thiele.

Dinner was prepared and served by the Christian Mother's society under the direction of Mrs. Art Sanders. Servers were the Misses Darlene Bollwitt, Mary Ann Kallhoff, Benetta Bollwitt, Dora Lou Rosno, Connie Lydon, Rita Lydon, Geraldine Rotherham and Doris Ann Spahn.

The bride attended St. Mary's academy and was graduated with the class of 1952.

She has been employed as a clerk by Mutual of Omaha.

The bridegroom attended the Ewing high school. After having spent two years in Norfolk, he is employed as a lineman by the telephone company.

After a wedding trip to the Black Hills and points West, they will make their home in Norfolk.

Guests attending the wedding were from Omaha, Fremont, Norfolk, Columbus, Spalding, Clearwater, O'Neill, Petersburg, Albion, Inman, Chambers, St. Edward and Ewing.
