Miss Arlene Ruroede, LaVern Engler Wed

(Photo at right) ATKINSON—St. Joseph's Catholic church was the scene of a pretty wedding on Thursday, June 28, when Miss Arlene Ruroede, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Ruroede of Ewing, became the bride of LaVern Engler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Engler of Atkinson.

Rev. William Kelliger officiated at the 10 a.m. ceremony. Deacon Schaeff of Atkinson played the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a chantly lace and nylon net gown with a double Peter Pan collar and long sleeves, pointed at the wrist. The fitted bodice was made of lace and buttoned at the back with tiny lace buttons. The full, three-layer skirt was of taffeta covered with an all nylon net skirt and topped with a skirt of lace ruffles starting at the waist and continuing to the floor. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

Mrs. Harry Stokely of Mullen, a friend of the bride, was matron-of-honor. She wore an ice blue over-length gown of nylon net with a red rose boutonniere and a bouquet of white asters.

Attending the bridegroom was his brother, Laurence Engler. The bridegroom wore a light blue suit with a red rose boutonniere and the best man wore a navy blue suit with a white aster boutonniere.

Duane Engler and Gerald Ruroede were ushers.

The bride's mother chose a navy blue nylon dress with pink accessories and the mother of the bridegroom wore a dusty rose dress with white accessories. Each had a white aster corsage.

A reception was given by the bride's mother at the Knights of Columbus hall for one hundred guests following the ceremony.

Miss DeLores Engler, sister of the bridegroom, was in charge of the guest book and Miss Norma Ruroede, the gifts. Miss Frances Vitt and Mrs. Edwin Nachtmann poured Mrs. Alfred Straka, Mrs. Mark Muff, Mrs. Ray Gilg and Miss Helen Martens prepared the lunch.

The bride chose a dress of aqua and white with matching nylon duster and white accessories for their wedding trip to western Nebraska.

Mrs. Engler is a graduate of the Ewing high school and Norfolk Junior college. She is employed as a secretary and is a member of the Standard Oil company.

Most of Holt Gets Moisture

Showers during the past seven days have helped refresh pastures and given a boost to growing crops.

Rain fell at O'Neill between 5:05 and 5:35 p.m. on Friday, netting 42 of an inch officially. The rainfall diminished north of O'Neill to .10 at the Fred Lindberg farm and .05 at the Frank Nelson farm, 23 miles northeast.

Only a few sprinkles fell at Chambers but the Everett Jarman ranch, 6 miles southwest of Chambers, received a light shower. The Royce Brown ranch in Wheeler county reported .20 and the Will and Herman Schipman ranch, on the Holt-Wheeler line, received a quarter of an inch.

Showers were received about the same time in the area west from O'Neill to Newport, Ainsworth, however, was skipped.

Ewing also was missed but Clearwater and Neligh reported showers up to a half-inch. Creighton received a half-inch.

More crop-making showers fell early Sunday in this portion of the state—rains that could be classified as general in character.

Showers started in O'Neill about 6:30 o'clock and officially netted .23 of an inch.

The Spencer hydro-electric dam attendant reported .30; the Thomas Greene ranch, in northern Holt, a quarter of an inch. Joe Pritchett, residing 14 miles northeast of O'Neill, said Sunday's showers netted about a quarter of an inch.

The showers had been very dry, had received .50 on Friday afternoon.

"Corn looks good," Mr. Pritchett declared. "Small grain suffered from the dryness but some might fill out yet."

The showers have aided pasture conditions considerably.

Other early Sunday rainfall reports: Lynch, 1.00; Bristow, .50; Neligh, .25; Norfolk, .08; Bennett (near Lincoln), 1.25; Chadron, .91; Burwell, .99; Valentine, trace.

Scattered showers were reported at Battle Creek, Tilden, St. Edward, Atkinson, Creighton, Cedar Rapids, Primrose—all in varying amounts.

Once again the Ainsworth region was short-changed—no precipitation there.

Mrs. Kenneth Barthel, Barbara and Cheryl visited in the Calvin Barthel home south of Amelia on Sunday.

M. J. Fagan spent the weekend of June 23 with his family. Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Fagan and children, accompanied by Mrs. L. W. Taggart, drove to Omaha where the latter visited her daughters, Miss Mary and Miss Jacqueline Taggart. They drove from Omaha to Sioux City where Mr. Fagan remained to resume his work. The others returned that evening. Enroute home they encountered the severe storm which struck this vicinity. Near Wayne they found water running through the car.

The Prairie Maids 4-H club met Tuesday, June 26, at the home of Elaine Hankart. The project was judging muffins. Each girl brought a sample of the article she had been working on—sandwiches, corn bread and snickerdoodles. Barbara Barthel reported on her trip to 4-H camp at Halsey.

The Prairie Wranglers 4-H club met at the Bayne Grubb home Tuesday, June 26. Calves were judged and games played.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Damme drove to Grand Island Saturday, June 23, to meet their son, A. L. Marvin Damme, who came to spend a 30-day leave with his parents. Following his leave he will be sent to Alaska where his brother, Kenneth, is stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bowers of Norfolk and Mrs. E. Baker, superintendent of worship, 11 a.m. Leon Foster with his mobile unit will conduct services at the church Sunday, July 8.
