Rockets Finally Beat Ainsworth

The O'Neill Rockets won a ding-dong baseball game from the Ainsworth Towners, 7-6, in Carney park here Sunday evening.

Although both teams are members of the North-Central day-and-night league, the game will not figure in the standings. It was a grudge match — Ainsworth having defeated O'Neill, 8-7, the preceding Sunday at Ainsworth.

O'Neill annexed in the last half of the ninth Maynard Morrow, Gene Wolf and Lowell Nessbitt got on with one down. Lloyd Hilligas popped out a long fly with Morrow racing home with the tying score, 6-6. Dick Tomlinson got a hit through center, with two down, and brought in Wolf with the winning tally.

Batteries: Ainsworth — Brady and Clark; O'Neill — Helmer, Heiss and McGuinn.

Ainsworth-Chambers Set CHAMBERS—The postponed first-half game between the Ainsworth and Chambers North-Central league entries, will be played at Chambers tonight (Thursday). The tilt was originally scheduled for May 27 and was rained out.

Winner will share with O'Neill and Bassett the first-half crown.

Rockets to Stuart
Second-half play in the North-Central loop will start Sunday. The Rockets will play at Stuart, Ainsworth at Chambers and Atkinson at Bassett.

CHAMBERS—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Walter attended the wedding of their youngest son, Norman Walter, and Miss Donna King at Herington, Kans., on June 17. Norman graduated last spring from Concordia Lutheran seminary at St. Louis, Mo.

Serving as bestman at the wedding was Reverend Walter's brother, Dr. Floyd Walter of Detroit, Mich. Twin brothers of the bridegroom, Ivan Walter of Herington, Ia., were the groomsmen. Lyle Walter of Chambers, eldest brother of the bridegroom, was head usher, assisted by a friend of Reverend Walter from St. Louis.

The occasion brought together the parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Walter, their five sons and one daughter, Mrs. Dick Brion of Neigh, for the first time in 10 years.

Reverend and Mrs. Walter spent a week in the Colorado mountains before going to St. Louis for the summer session at the seminary preparatory to going to Formosa as missionaries.

French Family Back from Michigan—
PAGE—Mr. and Mrs. Merwyn French and daughter, Betty, have returned from a month's vacation. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Duane Dorr and family at Lapeer, Mich., where the Frenches welcomed a new grandson, Brian Duane Dorr.

They visited Niagara Falls, N.Y., and Buffalo, N.Y., where they had dinner with Rev. and Mrs. Sam McKeown. They were guests of Howard Bryan, formerly of Page, at a cabin on Lake Cayuga.

They located the house in which all six children in the original French family were born, including Merwyn's father, George.

Arrival of Twins Dominates Talk—
PAGE—Mrs. Milo Landreth was hostess to the members of the NOK club on Thursday for an afternoon of visiting and needlework. The day was made a special occasion because of the arrival of twins, a boy and a girl to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Harmon at San Diego, Calif. Mrs. Harmon is the Landreth's only child. The twins have been named Rodney Ray and Rhonda Kay. After that announcement, all other news became trivial.
