Miss Mary Belzer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Belzer of O'Neill, and Clifford Burival, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burival of O'Neill, were married in St. Patrick's Catholic church at 9 o'clock, Wednesday morning, June 27. Rev. Thomas Hitch officiated at the double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with vases of asters.

Bonnie Burival sang "Ave Maria," accompanied by Sharlene Shoemaker at the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a floor-length white nylon lace gown, and carried a white prayer book covered with white feathered carnations. Her veil was held by a crown of pearls.

Roseanna Underwood of Norfolk, a friend of the bride, served as maid-of-honor. She wore a lavender ballerina-length gown and carried a bouquet of lavender asters.

James Burival, cousin of the bridegroom, was bestman.

The mothers of the bride and bridegroom wore corsages of white daisies.

Following the ceremony, a breakfast was given by the bride's mother for 50 guests at Slat's Supper club. On the bride's table was placed a three-tier wedding cake and a centerpiece of white daisies.
