Burial Rites Here for Nonagenarian

Amanda Pace Dies in Florida

Funeral services for Mrs. Amanda Pace, 97, a former O'Neill resident who died June 24 at Miami, Fla., were conducted here Friday, June 29, at First Presbyterian church. Burial was in Prospect Hill cemetery. Pallbearers were Arlo Hiatt, Harold Barge, George Weingartner, Maurice Grutsch, Frank Clements and Vice Sucky. Rev. G. Olen Kennell officiated.

The late Mrs. Pace was born January 2, 1839, at Galena, Ill., a daughter of the late John and Nancy Richey. She was one of six children.

As a young girl she moved with her parents to Missouri. In 1877, she married Elva Hammers at Rockport, Mo. Three children were born to this union: Mrs. Lila Collins of Eugene, Ore., who died last year; Charles Hammers of Miami, Fla., and Mrs. Ethel Whitlock of Woodland Hills, Calif. Mr. Hammers died in 1885.

On February 10, 1889, at Rockport, she married James Pace. They became the parents of three children: Mrs. Lulu Quig of O'Neill; George of St. Joseph, Mo., and Ruth, who died at a young age.

In 1913 the Pace family moved to Brunswick, Antelope county, and in 1917 to O'Neill, Mr. Pace, who farmed 12 miles southwest of here, died in 1924.

Last year Mrs. Pace, accompanied by Mrs. Quig, went to Miami to spend the winter. Mrs. Pace suffered a fractured hip in a fall April 6.

The hip mended satisfactorily and doctors told relatives they were amazed by her recovery and her alert mind. Her death was caused by complications of advanced age.

Survivors include two sons, two daughters, five grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. Among those attending the funeral from a distance, Mr. and Mrs. George Pace and Mrs. Kenneth Hogan, all of St. Joseph, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Rice, Stephen and Timothy of Kansas City, Mo.; Mrs. Myrtle Hale of Independence, Mo., and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Allmond of Holdrege.

Church of Christ Groups Hold Picnic

EWING—The Ewing and Clearwater congregations of the Church of Christ held a picnic at the Ewing park on Sunday following the worship hour of each church. A basket dinner was served to about one hundred persons.

In the evening the Ewing group went to Clearwater where members attended a youth rally.

CHAMBERS—Douglas Jarman returned Sunday by train from Lake Okoboji and other points in Iowa where he had been visiting about a week.

Rally Attracts Youth from Nearby Cities, Towns

PAGE—The congregation of the Wesleyan Methodist church at Page served supper to those in attendance following the youth rally in progress in the afternoon.

Youth attended from Niobrara, Atkinson, Lynch, O'Neill, Riverside, Amelia, Venus and Page. Rev. Duane Lauber of O'Neill was in charge of services and Rev. Van Slyke was guest speaker.

The evening services concluded an eight day evangelistic service here with Rev. D. C. Van Slyke of Nampa, Ida., guest speaker, and Rev. J. K. Cunningham of Lynch in charge of the song service.

A "good sized" crowd was in attendance throughout.

Former Residents Injured in Crash

CHAMBERS—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Young recently received word from their daughter, Mrs. Lee Mitchell of Boise, Ida., stating that the family had been involved in a car accident. Another car struck their broadside at an intersection. One daughter, Judy, received a broken nose and the other daughter, Theresa, a gash on her head which required stitches. The Mitchells are former Chambers residents.

Mrs. Reed Herley's Brownie troop held a picnic in Ford's park Tuesday, June 26.
