Ohio Cattle Feeders to Be Entertained

Twenty-six cattle feeders from the Allen county, O., Cattle Feeders association will arrive at the Ainsworth airport in a DC-3 on Monday evening, August 27. Arrangements are being made for their visit to the Sandhills by the cattle feeder contact committee of the Sandhills Cattle association. While visiting in the Sandhills, the feeders will be guests of ranchers in the Basset-O'Neill areas.

Representatives of the host ranchers in the eastern edge of the range area will meet the Ohioans at the airport. They will journey to Atkinson by auto where the feeders will be assigned to host ranchers in the various operations that take place in the production of feeder cattle.

At 5 o'clock the following afternoon, both the feeders and their hosts will be guests of ranchers and their wives at a picnic at the Basset fair grounds. Following the picnic the visiting feeders will be assigned new hosts and will spend the night and the next day with ranchers in the Basset area.

The group will leave for home on Wednesday afternoon, August 29, via the DC-3 from the Ainsworth airport.

Larry Schaffer of O'Neill and Richard Lackaff of Basset are in charge of arrangements in their respective areas.
