Special Awards

Honey Baking Contest

All contestants must be carrying a 4-H food preparation project. First place winner under 16 years of age will be eligible for cash award. Over 16 years of age will receive an expense paid trip to Lincoln to the state contest. Winner at Lincoln will receive an expense paid trip to Long Beach, Calif., as a national contestant.

State and national Honey Queen or King will have a great deal of publicity, newspapers and television.

Exhibitors must enter at least three classes. Each first place will count four points; second place, three points, and third place, two points. Winner of most points will be crowned Honey Queen or King.

Bellin's Apiaries will sponsor and award the prizes. A 2-pound jar of honey will be given to each exhibitor entering at least three classes.

Premiums for County Contest

- Honey date nut bread, 1 loaf
- Honey fudge cake, frost with honey frosting
- Honey oatmeal cookies (6)
- Honey peanut butter cookies (6)

Chambers

Commercial Club Trophies

The following trophies are being provided by the Chambers Commercial Club for champion exhibitors in the following classifications:

- Stocker-feeder.
- Baby beef.
- Cow and calf.
- Breeding heifer.
- Dairy heifer.

3 Teams to Appear in Baseball Games

Three teams, all members of the North - Central Nebraska day-and-night baseball league, have been booked for appearances at the 1956 fair.

Fair Secretary James Gibson says all three appear to be "very evenly matched", based upon their performances during the current season.

The Chambers team will face the Atkinson towners on Wednesday afternoon, August 15, and the Chambers team will face the O'Neill Rockets on Thursday afternoon, August 16.

RODEOS IN MANY STATES

Last year there were rodeos in 35 states and Canada.

NOT STRICTLY WESTERN

Rodeo is no longer a strictly western sport. Last year there were 56 RCA approved rodeos west of the Mississippi and more rodeos in New York than in Arizona, Nevada, New Mexico, North Dakota, South Dakota, Utah or Wyoming.

NO SCANDALS

Rodeo is the only major American sport that has never had a scandal, partly because of the attitude of the men in the sport and partly because of the futility of bribing or dealing with a wild bronc, bull or a dogging steer.
