Saiser Memorial Fund Is Growing

EWING — The WSCS of the Methodist church met at the church parlors Wednesday, August 1.

The following committees were appointed by Mrs. Ralph Eacker, president: To make out year books—Miss Anna Van Zandt, chairman, Mrs. L. A. Hobbs, Mrs. James Tinsley, Mrs. Anna Pollock, Mrs. S. E. Borden and Mrs. Ben Larsen; to order pillow cases for the annual bazaar—Mrs. Sis Ebbengard and Mrs. William Spence.

Names were chosen for the year for the lunch committees.

More money was received from friends and relatives for the Mrs. Perry Saiser memorial fund.

Mrs. Henry Fleming conducted the devotional period, the theme: "How Real Is the Kingdom to Us?" The meeting was opened by Miss Van Zandt with the reading, "The Lord Will Provide." "Measuring Our Growth" was the lesson presented by Mrs. Earl Billings, assisted by Mrs. Jessie Angus and Mrs. Florence Butler. It was a report on the program of the WSCS at the close of the quadrennium, "That the Kingdom of God May Be Real."

Twenty-four members were present and two guests, Miss Iris Van Ostrand and Mrs. Dewitt Hoke. Lunch was served from tables centered with gladioli arrangements. Hostesses were Mrs. L. C. Bridgen and Mrs. Willis Rokey.
