McDonald-Goldfuss Nuptials at Orchard

PAGE—Rev. Walter Seefeldt, pastor, officiated at the 6 p.m. wedding of Miss Sharon Kay McDonald to Eugene Goldfuss in a simple single-ring ceremony in the sanctuary of St. Peter's Lutheran church at Orchard Sunday, August 5.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl McDonald of Pierre, S.D., and the parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Goldfuss of Page.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in a white linen-weave orlon sheath gown featuring a V neckline, accented by lapels and having a rhinestone and bead trimmed insert. The gown was street-length and her accessories were white. Her short wedding veil was held by a white hat and she carried a colonial bouquet of roses.

Miss Pauline Goldfuss, only sister of the bridegroom, served as bridesmaid. She wore a charcoal street-length dress accented by a corsage of pink carnations. Charles F. Waterman acted as bestman for the bridegroom. Each wore a conventional style business suit and the men of the wedding party had white carnation boutonnieres.

The bride's mother wore a dress of powder blue and black print taffeta while the mother of the bridegroom wore a navy blue crepe dress. Their accessories were white and they wore carnation corsages.

Werner Poesnecker, uncle of the bridegroom, presided at the organ and played the wedding music. Guests were the immediate relatives of the couple.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors. Members of the Lutheran Ladies Aid served refreshments. The bridal table was centered with a three-tier pink and white wedding cake decorated with roses and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. The guest tables were centered with bouquets of garden flowers. Mrs. McDonald and Miss Pauline Goldfuss assisted the bride and bridegroom at the gift table.

After the reception the relatives gathered at the Goldfuss home for an informal evening together.

The bride received her education at Onawa, Ia., while the bridegroom is a graduate of the Royal high school. Since his graduation he has been engaged in farming. At the close of the farming season the young couple expects to take a trip to California. In the meantime they will be at home at 705 East Douglas street, O'Neill, where the bridegroom expects to operate a trucking business later in the season.

Social Security Man Coming
