

Funk-Thiele Nuptials Read at St. John's

DELOIT—A pretty double-ring ceremony was held at St. John's Catholic church on Wednesday, August 9, at 9 a.m., when Miss Vera Dell Funk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Funk, became the bride of Philip Thiele, son of the late Peter Thiele. Rev. Alured Hoising sang the nuptial high mass.

David Sehl and Jerry Thiele served. Organist was Mrs. Mark Sehl and Jack Funk was soloist. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of chantilly lace and nylon net. The bodice featured a V neckline, both front and back, with a tiny edge of net and scallop trim of lace, and buttoned down the back. The full circular skirt was made of nylon tulle over satin and was accented at the hipline with a lace bustle trimmed with nylon net, under which deep net ruffles extended to the hem on each side. A headpiece trimmed with pearls and sequins held the fingertip veil which was trimmed with lace to match the gown.

The bride's bouquet was an orchid surrounded by white feathered carnations. She wore a matched set of earrings and necklace of rhinestone with a touch of blue, a gift from the bridegroom.

Mrs. Kenneth Ziska, sister of the bride, was matron-of-honor and the bridesmaid, Miss Elaine Funk, niece of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. All wore ballerina-length dresses of blue taffeta under nylon net, and carried white carnations.

The flowergirl was Sheila Ziska, niece of the bride, and the ringbearer was Danny Hemenway, nephew of the bridegroom. The flowergirl's dress was fashioned exactly like that of the bride. It was made by her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Charles Ziska of Atkinson.

Ronnie Hemenway, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best-man. Clarence Funk, brother of the bride, acted as groomsmen. All the men wore blue suits with white carnation boutonnières.

Kenny Ziska and Herman Starman were ushers.

The bride's mother chose a navy blue two-piece dress with pink accessories. She wore a corsage of pink carnations.

A wedding breakfast was served at the William Sehl home with Mrs. Sehl and Mrs. Andrew Mueller assisting.

A noon dinner was held at the church parlors for about one hundred guests and a reception in the afternoon for about 175.

The four-tier wedding cake was baked by the aunt of the bride and bridegroom, Mrs. Carl Thiele, and was served by Mrs. Clarence Funk, Mrs. John Kaster, aunt of the bride, poured. Mrs. Ronnie Hemenway, sister of the bridegroom, was in charge of the guest book.

For her going away dress, the bride chose a blue nylon gown with white accessories.

Mrs. Thiele was graduated from St. Mary's academy with the class of 1955 and taught a rural school in Wheeler county the past year.

Mr. Thiele is engaged in farming southwest of Clearwater.

Those helping with the wedding dinner and reception were the Mesdames Albin Thramer, Mark Thramer, Alex Thramer, Ludwig Tagel, Cletus Muff, George Walter, Carl Ernesti, John Kneivel, Bill Kneivel, Frank Miller, J. Minarik, Clarence Shavlik and Peter Kaster.

Waitresses were Corrine Mueller, Carol and Judy Kaster, Sharon Leahy, Winnie Vandernick, Patty and Joan Sehl, Lois Kaczor, Margaret Mary Funk and Alberta Price.

Mrs. Rudy Funk had charge of the decorating of the church parlors. Cletus Muff and Alex Thramer were in charge of refreshments.

A wedding dance was held at Summerland on the same evening for a large number of relatives and friends.

The bride and bridegroom went to Denver, Colo., on their wedding trip.
