MARKET REPORT "The Old Reliable"

Tuesday, Aug. 14 Cattle buyers from several states were on hand to bid on the lightest run of cattle in several months. They also pushed the lid on prices as all the stockers and feeders were $0.50 to $1.00 higher with most advance on yearling and 2-year-old steers. We had almost as many buyers as we did cattle and it looked like they were really trying to buy them.

Good to choice steers sold from $17.50 to $19.75 with petter kinds quotable up to $20.50 cwt. Heifers didn't share quite the advance but the quality of our offering wasn't the best, prices were from $15.75 to $1700. A load of just good 640-lb. kinds sold for $16.30 cwt.

Desirable beef cows larger steady from $9.75 to $12.00 Commercial kinds $9.00 to $9.75 with the canners and cutters from $8.25 to $9.00 ewt. Bulls stronger from $12.00
