

Miss Evelyn Barta Surprised at Home

DORSEY — A surprise party was held at the Gordon Barta home Friday for their daughter, who was celebrating her ninth birthday anniversary. It was a complete surprise as Miss Evelyn was visiting one of her neighbor girl friends. The little guests were hidden when Evelyn and Neta Conrad were summoned to come to the Barta home.

Evelyn received many gifts and enjoyed the birthday cakes. One was in the form of a tractor and the other a lamb. Cakes were decorated by Evelyn's grandmother, Mrs. William Kalal of Verdigris.

Ewing Couple Weds in Emmet Church

EWING—Miss Laura Vandersnick and Joe Kaczor, both of Ewing, were united in marriage on Thursday, August 23, at the Catholic Church of the Epiphany at Emmet. Rev. Francis Price, a former schoolmate of the bride, officiated at the single-ring, 9 a.m., ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Vandersnick and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Eva Kaczor, all of Ewing.

The front and side altar of the church were decorated with candles and pink and white gladioli.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a two-piece street-length dress of light blue chrysopeum. Her corsage was of pink gladioli and she carried a white prayer book and crystal rosary.

Matron-of-honor was Mrs. Lyle Mitties, sister of the bride. Her gown of charcoal chrysopeum was fashioned identically like that of the bride. Her corsage was of pink feathered carnations.

The bridegroom and bestman, Lyle Mitties, wore dark business suits and white carnation boutonnieres.

The mother of the bride chose a light charcoal gown with white accessories for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother appeared in a floral print.

Both wore corsages of white carnations.

Miss Winnie Vandersnick had charge of the gift book at the church.

At noon a reception and dinner were held at the Town House in O'Neill for immediate relatives. The table was decorated with candles and bouquets of pink roses and was centered with the three-tier wedding cake, a gift from the M&M cafe in O'Neill where the bride had been employed.

In charge of the gift book was Miss "Jen" Rose of Grand Island and Mrs. Edith Kaczor of Ewing assisted with the gifts.

The couple left on a wedding trip through the Black Hills. They will make their home on the Grimm farm southwest of Ewing on their return.
