Rockets Blank Foe in Playoff

O'Neill Club Owns 16-5 Record

It was a lopsided showing in Carney park Sunday night as the O'Neill Rockets, kingpins thus far in North-Central Nebraska day-and-night league, clobbered the Stuart Independents, 10-0. O'Neill made it 16 wins compared to five losses for the season—including league and non-league engagements.

The setback knocked Stuart from the league playoff for the season's crown. Under league rules, the first place team (O'Neill) was to meet the fourth place club (Stuart) and the second place team (Bassett) was to face the third place outfit (Atkinson) in a single game settlement. Earlier, to determine second, third and fourth positions in the final standings, four teams—Atkinson, Stuart, Bassett and Ainsworth—were obliged to play a double-elimination. At the end of the regular playing season each of these four teams had won five and lost five. In that elimination, Stuart clobbered Ainsworth, 14-7, and Bassett knocked Atkinson, 9-3.

When the shakeup was over the stage was set for the season's playoff now in progress.

In Sunday night's fray here, Larry Heiss, chucked for the winners and yielded only three hits. Kryst was on the mound for Stuart and gave up eight hits.

The game was loosely played in spots but at no time were the Rockets in danger.

Summary:
O'Neill 103 002 31x-10 8 2
Stuart 000 000 000-0 3 7

Batteries: Stuart—Kryst and Max Kump; O'Neill—Heiss and Jerry McGinn.

League standings (including season's-end playoff games):

"The Old Reliable"

Tuesday, August 28

Cattle receipts: 787 head — consisting mostly of just medium to good quality cattle, in less than carload lots. Nothing to compare with last week's quality. Continuing hot weather and a decline in fat cattle values has tended to temper the buying enthusiasm of the past two weeks, leaving current prices generally around 50 cents a hundred lower.

No fleshy feeder cattle on offer, with medium quality yearlings at $17.00 to $19.00 cwt. Heifers at $15.50 to $17.00 cwt. Cows looked a half dollar lower, with canners $8.00 to $9.00, cutters $9.25 to $9.75, beef grades at $10.00 to $12.00 and bulls at $12.00 to $13.00 cwt.

Next Tuesday, Sept. 4th — We hold Our Second Special Carlot Auction—This will be well advertised and will attract the buyers. We would be pleased to have your consignments. Just phone Atkinson 5141 and list them.
