

Shirley Ann Shald,
James R. Chaney
Are Wed at Stuart

STUART—St. Boniface Catholic church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 9 a.m. Thursday, August 30, when Miss Shirley Ann Shald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Shald, became the bride of James R. Chaney, son of Mrs. Earl Chaney.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a gown of nylon tulle over Skinker satin. The fitted bodice was buttoned down the back and featured a wide star pointed lace band below a high lace edged neckline in a pleated tulle yoke.

Lace continued over the shoulders of the long fitted tulle sleeves, with lace applique accenting the pointed wrists.

A wide band of pleated tulle below star pointed lace outlined the bouffant tulle skirt and continued around the chapel train. The lace and tulle panel was repeated in a tulle apron-styled overskirt. Her imported French illusion fingertip veil was held by a pleateau headpiece of chantilly lace trimmed in tiny seed pearls. She carried a white orchid with Stephanotis on a white prayer book.

Miss Marcia Bigelow of Omaha, friend of the bride, was maid-of-honor, and Miss Jane Kunkel of Omaha, friend of the bride, was bridesmaid. They wore cocktail length dresses of powder blue crepelette over yarn dyed taffeta styled with a fitted empire bodice with a bateau neckline and elbow length push-up sleeves. A large tailored bow with short wide streamers gave back interest. A full princess skirt was worn over stiffened petticoats. They carried white fans with shell pink carnations.

Junior bridesmaids were Patty Chaney of Ainsworth, niece of the bridegroom and Renne Hitchcock, cousin of the bride.

Their powder blue dresses were copied from that of the bridesmaid. They carried blue daisies.

Debbie Chaney of Atkinson, niece of the bridegroom was flowergirl. She wore a white dress and carried blue daisies. Mike Chaney of Ainsworth, nephew of the bridegroom, was ringbearer and wore a white suit.

Iva Shald, cousin of the bride, was an attendant. James Seger and Don Myers ushered. The men wore business suits with a white carnation boutonniere.

A dinner was given at Stuart auditorium for 125 guests. The bride's table was decorated with an arrangement of pink, blue and white carnations, flanked with white candles.

Seasonal flowers decorated the other tables and the auditorium. A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents in the afternoon.

Miss Connie Hitchcock, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

Mrs. Chaney is a graduate of Stuart high school, class of 1953, and a graduate of St. Joseph's School of Nursing in Omaha.

Mr. Chaney is a graduate of Stuart high school, class of 1950, and is attending University of Arkansas in Fayetteville, Ark.

Following a wedding trip, the couple will reside at 16, North Duncan, Fayetteville, Ark.
