

Peck-Renze Rites at Long Beach

St. Anthony's church in Long Beach, Calif., was the setting for the ceremony in which Miss Earline Peck, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Peck of Hartington, became the bride of John H. Renze, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Renze of O'Neill, on Saturday, September 1.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose for her wedding a waltz-length gown of ivory chantilly lace over taffeta, fashioned with a V neckline. The back of the skirt was accented at the waistline with pleats. Her hat was ivory felt trimmed with ivory satin and she wore wrist-length gloves of ivory, with an orchid corsage completing her ensemble. The bride carried a mother of pearl rosary, a gift from the bridegroom, and a pearl-covered missal, which had been carried by the bridegroom's grandmother at her wedding.

Ruth Renze, sister of the bridegroom, gowned in navy taffeta with navy accessories, was maid-of-honor. Her corsage was of yellow daisies.

The bridegroom and his best man, James A. England, a shipmate, were attired in grey flannel suits and wore carnation boutonnieres.

Mrs. Peck chose for her daughters' wedding a medium brown ensemble with cocoa brown accessories and a tulle rosebud corsage. Mrs. Renze wore a cadet blue dress with navy accessories. Her corsage was of red rosebuds.

A brunch was served at the Villa Nova, Long Beach, immediately following the wedding.

A reception was held in the afternoon at the Moose lodge, East Los Angeles, for relatives and friends of the couple. The wedding cake which served as the centerpiece for the bride's table at the reception, was cut and served by Mrs. Fred Renze of Whittier, aunt of the bridegroom.

Mrs. J. P. Hartnett of East Los Angeles, aunt of the bridegroom, poured and Mrs. James A. England opened and displayed the gifts.

Guests for the day included the brides' godmother and her husband, Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Smith of Long Beach, former Hartington residents.

During the week preceding the wedding the bride and bridegroom, their parents and Jim Renze were entertained at the J. P. Hartnett residence in East Los Angeles and at a private swimming party at the Lou Holzer residence in Beverly Hills.

The couple is now at home at 1153 1/2 East 3rd, Long Beach.

Dinner Guests

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Shellhase and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Klingler of O'Neill, Mr. and Mrs. John Tipton and Mr. and Mrs. Chris Jensen of Tokamah were Sunday dinner guests at the Ivan Cone home.
