Norman - Baumeister Nuptials in Omaha

The marriage of Miss Beverly Joy Norman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Norman of Wakefield, and Clayton D. Baumeister, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Baumeister of West Point, was solemnized at 1:30 p.m., Sunday, September 2, in the First Lutheran church, Omaha. The Normans and Baumeisters are all former O'Neill residents.

Rev. Norman Temme of Omaha performed the double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with white and shrimp gladioli. The bride appeared in a floor-length gown of imported chantilly lace and nylon tulle over Skinner satin. The fitted empire bodice buttoned down the back with self-covered buttons and features cut-out lace appliques on the illusion yoke which was accented by a scalloped edge mandarin collar. It was fashioned with long lace sleeves, crushed and pointed at the wrists. The very bouffant skirt was styled of nylon tulle tiers and was worn over hooped petticoats. A scalloped-edge peplum extended in deep scrolls into a filmy tulle overskirt.

Pearl earrings, a gift from the bridegroom, were her only jewelry. She carried a cascade bouquet of white feathered mums, centered with an orchid.

Miss Jackie Norman of Omaha served her sister as maid-of-honor. Misses Margery Norman, sister of the bride, and Harriet Peterson, both of Omaha, were bridesmaids.

The attendants wore coral silk crystalettes dresses of ballerina-length. The high Sabrina neckline of the fitted bodices extended into brief sleeves and a deep V in the back, accented by wide streamers the full length of the skirts. The shirred fullness of the skirts was held by a narrow band of matching crystalettes. The gowns were worn over stiffened petticoats. The attendants each carried a cascade bouquet of white and shrimp gladioli.

Bestman was Kip Buiss of Omaha, friend of the bridegroom. Dick Huston and Jim Schindler, also of Omaha, served as groomsmen. The bridegroom and his attendants wore dark blue suits with white carnation boutonnieres.

Flowergirl was Debbie Stokley, niece of the bridegroom. Darrell Stokley, nephew of the bridegroom, served as ringbearer. Mrs. Norman chose a black dress with blue flowered print and blue accessories for her daughter's wedding. Her corsage was of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother appeared in a grey dress with red accessories and wore a white carnation corsage.

A reception was held in the church parlors following the ceremony.

Both the bride and bridegroom were graduated from O'Neill high school. Mrs. Baumeister is employed by Mutual Benefit in Omaha and Mr. Baumeister is employed at C. A. Swanson's there. After a wedding trip to Colorado, they will make their home at 125 No. 32nd ave., Omaha. For going-away, Mrs. Baumeister chose a grey dress with black accessories. She wore the orchid from her bouquet for a corsage.

800 Cattle Expected

Eight hundred cattle are expected for the sale today (Thursday) at the O'Neill Livestock Market. The run will consist mostly of yearling steers and heifers. Many of these will be in load and half-load lots. Quality of these cattle will be better than we have been having and will improve each week. There will probably be around 100 calves in small lots. Three yearling registered Hereford bulls will be offered.

Eight choice milk cows are listed for the September 20 auction from the Meyer dairy in Atkinson. A more detailed description will be given on the Wednesday, September 19, "Voice of The Frontier" radio broadcast.

Let us know of your consignments of cattle ahead of sale day so we may advertise them.
