Roof Falls in for Cards in Fourth

Crofton Extends Win Streak to 19

The St. Mary's academy Cardinals almost pulled the upset of the year Friday night as they battered the powerful Crofton Warriors to a scoreless deadlock for three quarters, then succumbed to superior manpower in the final period.

The Cards kicked to Crofton and the Warriors secured a first down at midfield. They were halted in the next series of plays and St. Mary's took over on their own 30-yard line. After three attempts failed to gain yardage, Jerry McGinn got off a beautiful punt, good for 50 yards into the Warrior end zone.

Crofton, unable to make any yardage, was forced to punt and St. Mary's took over at mid-field as the first quarter ended.

The Cards picked up their first down of the evening when Guard Holly pitched to Jim McGinn, who made a diving catch to advance the ball eight yards. Holly then crashed center for the necessary yards to give St. Mary's a first down on Crofton's 28. A penalty moved the Cards back five yards and Holly was trapped for three more. Tom Schneider then broke loose to advance the ball to the Crofton 14. After Holly gained two, the academy lost the ball via a fumble.

Thereafter, neither team was able to make progress as the scoreless half ended.

St. Mary's took the second half kickoff but failed to muster any offense and punted the ball to the Warriors, who promptly started a prolonged drive to push the ball down to the academy's 17-yard line as the game entered the final period—still scoreless.

Two plays later, Jerry Stefins, Crofton's all-star from last year, circled his right end for 14 yards and the first score. Larry Rissler plunged for the point and Crofton led, 7-0.

Fumbles hampered the Cards' attempts to muster an offense and thus they were again forced to punt. The Cards then held off the Warriors until the final four minutes when Tom Schneider was forced from the game because of a shoulder injury. The Warriors, taking advantage of the weakened academy outfit, led the game with a pass to Stefins, good for 19 yards and a TD. They added a point to lead 14-0.

Trailing by 14 with less than three minutes to go, the Scarlet tossed three incomplete passes before being forced to punt from deep in their own territory. A mixed signal caused a blocked punt and Crofton took over on SMA's 10. Three plays later, Stefins plunged for his third and final TD to make the game 21-0. Still fighting to stay in the game, the Cards returned the kickoff to the 22. With Holly and Jim McGinn clicking on a 9-yard pass play, and Jim picking up 8 more on an end run, SMA advanced to midfield only to lose the ball again by the sixth fumble of the evening.

Two plays later, the clock ran out and Crofton extended its victory streak to 19 straight games.

The entire Cardinal lineup showed well on defense with Gene O'Neill, Bruce Weber, Jim Hickey and Schneider carrying the brunt of the load. Schneider made 16 tackles before being sidelined.

Lack of reserve strength, due to injuries to Jim Becker, Larry Cleary and Jim Froelich, took a toll in the final period. The Warriors' two-plateau system gradually wore out the academy.

The academy offense never jelled, except for a few fine catches by Jim McGinn and Schneider's lone jaunt for 25 yards. Only the punting of Jerry McGinn and the strong defensive line enabled the Cards to fight the Warriors on even terms for three quarters.

On Friday afternoon the Cards will journey to Springfield. Last year the Cards upended the Indians, 33-14. The hosts are expected to be heavier.

Froelich, SMA's big end, will be on the shelf with a knee injury. Larry Donohoe and Larry Tomlinson have been moved to the offensive first string.

CHS Coyotes Win Opener, 30-12

CHAMBERS—The Chambers high Coyotes, playing under the improved lights at the fairgrounds lost to Bartlett, 12-30, Friday night in a six-man encounter. It was the season's opener for both clubs.

Bartlett rolled up 16 points in the first period and also scored in the second and third.

The Coyotes will entertain Oakdale Friday night, September 21, at Chambers.

Meanwhile, Chambers high is making plans for homecoming day to be held Saturday, September 29. Seniors are selling tickets on an electric skillet and this is intended to help finance the affair. Winner of the skillet will be determined Saturday night, September 22, at the Harley hardware.

Ewing's Win Streak Cracked at Bassett

EWING—Coach Fritz Reifert's Ewing Tigers, laboring under the weight of a 16-win streak and with some inexperienced hands at key positions, Friday night buckled at Bassett, 23-12. A big crowd was on hand for the season's opener for both clubs.

Later in the second, Ewing took over on its own 10. Bassett held, and an attempted punt was blocked, and a Bassett player pounced on the ball in the end zone for a safety. Leo Gorbail added a TD for Bassett and the extra point was racked up on a running play. Ewing led 12-9 at the half.

Ronnie Marcellus broke loose for Bassett early in the third and put the host team ahead. The PAT, a running attempt, was good and the Rock countyans owned a 16-12 advantage.

Jack Johnson tallied the third Bassett TD, which came in the final period and the point was added, on a scrimmage.

During the fourth the Bassett reserve strength began to show against the Holt crew. Ewing had several inexperienced hands going the route—two green backs and several in the line.

But Coach Reifert had no apologies. From an interest standpoint, it was a dilly and the crowd was pleased with good, hard football. Reifert's team is one of Ewing's lightest in years.

Bassett amassed 267 yards by rushing compared to Ewing's 115. The Rocks knocked off only 20 yards in the air; Ewing, 159, completing five out of 17.

O'Neill Picked for '57 Tourney

A meeting of officers of member schools was held here Saturday. Stanley Gross, Page superintendent, was elected president.

CREIGHTON WINS—The Creighton Maroons handed the Atkinson high Balers a 13-0 defeat here Friday night.

Plainview Rips Eagles' Right Side

Blues Humiliated 39-0 Before Big Crowd

The visiting Plainview Pirates tallied in every quarter before a large season's opening crowd here Friday night and the O'Neill Eagles were submerged, 39-0.

Plainview outweighed the Blues over 10 pounds per man. The visitors, sparked by C. H. Hinrichsen, unmercifully pounded the right side of the O'Neill line.

Plainview got two touchdowns in the first quarter on long drives and added a TD and a safety in the second.

Hinrichsen, a 165-pound senior, hurt the Eagles all evening with his off tackle slashes and cutbacks. He reeled off a long run in the third for the Pirates.

The Pirates ground out one fourth period TD and Mr. Hinrichsen galloped the length of the field for another after intercepting an O'Neill pass on the goal line. The interception broke up O'Neill's bid at the Plainview 3.

Coach Charles Runtly used only 14 players whereas Coach Marvin Miller employed 22 Eagles, trying desperately to plug the costly leaks in the right side.

Soph Back Ronnie Smith, a transfer from Iowa last year, ran well off tackle and showed some deception in backfield work. Plainview suffered little from graduation last year and had an unbeaten crew a year ago.

The Eagles go to Bassett Friday night. The Rock countyans emerged 23-12 victor over Ewing last week.

Butte defeated the Rockets, 6-5, Sunday by scoring the winning run with two down in the ninth. Art Ellwanger, Butte hurler, held O'Neill scoreless after the sixth.
